SIBYL

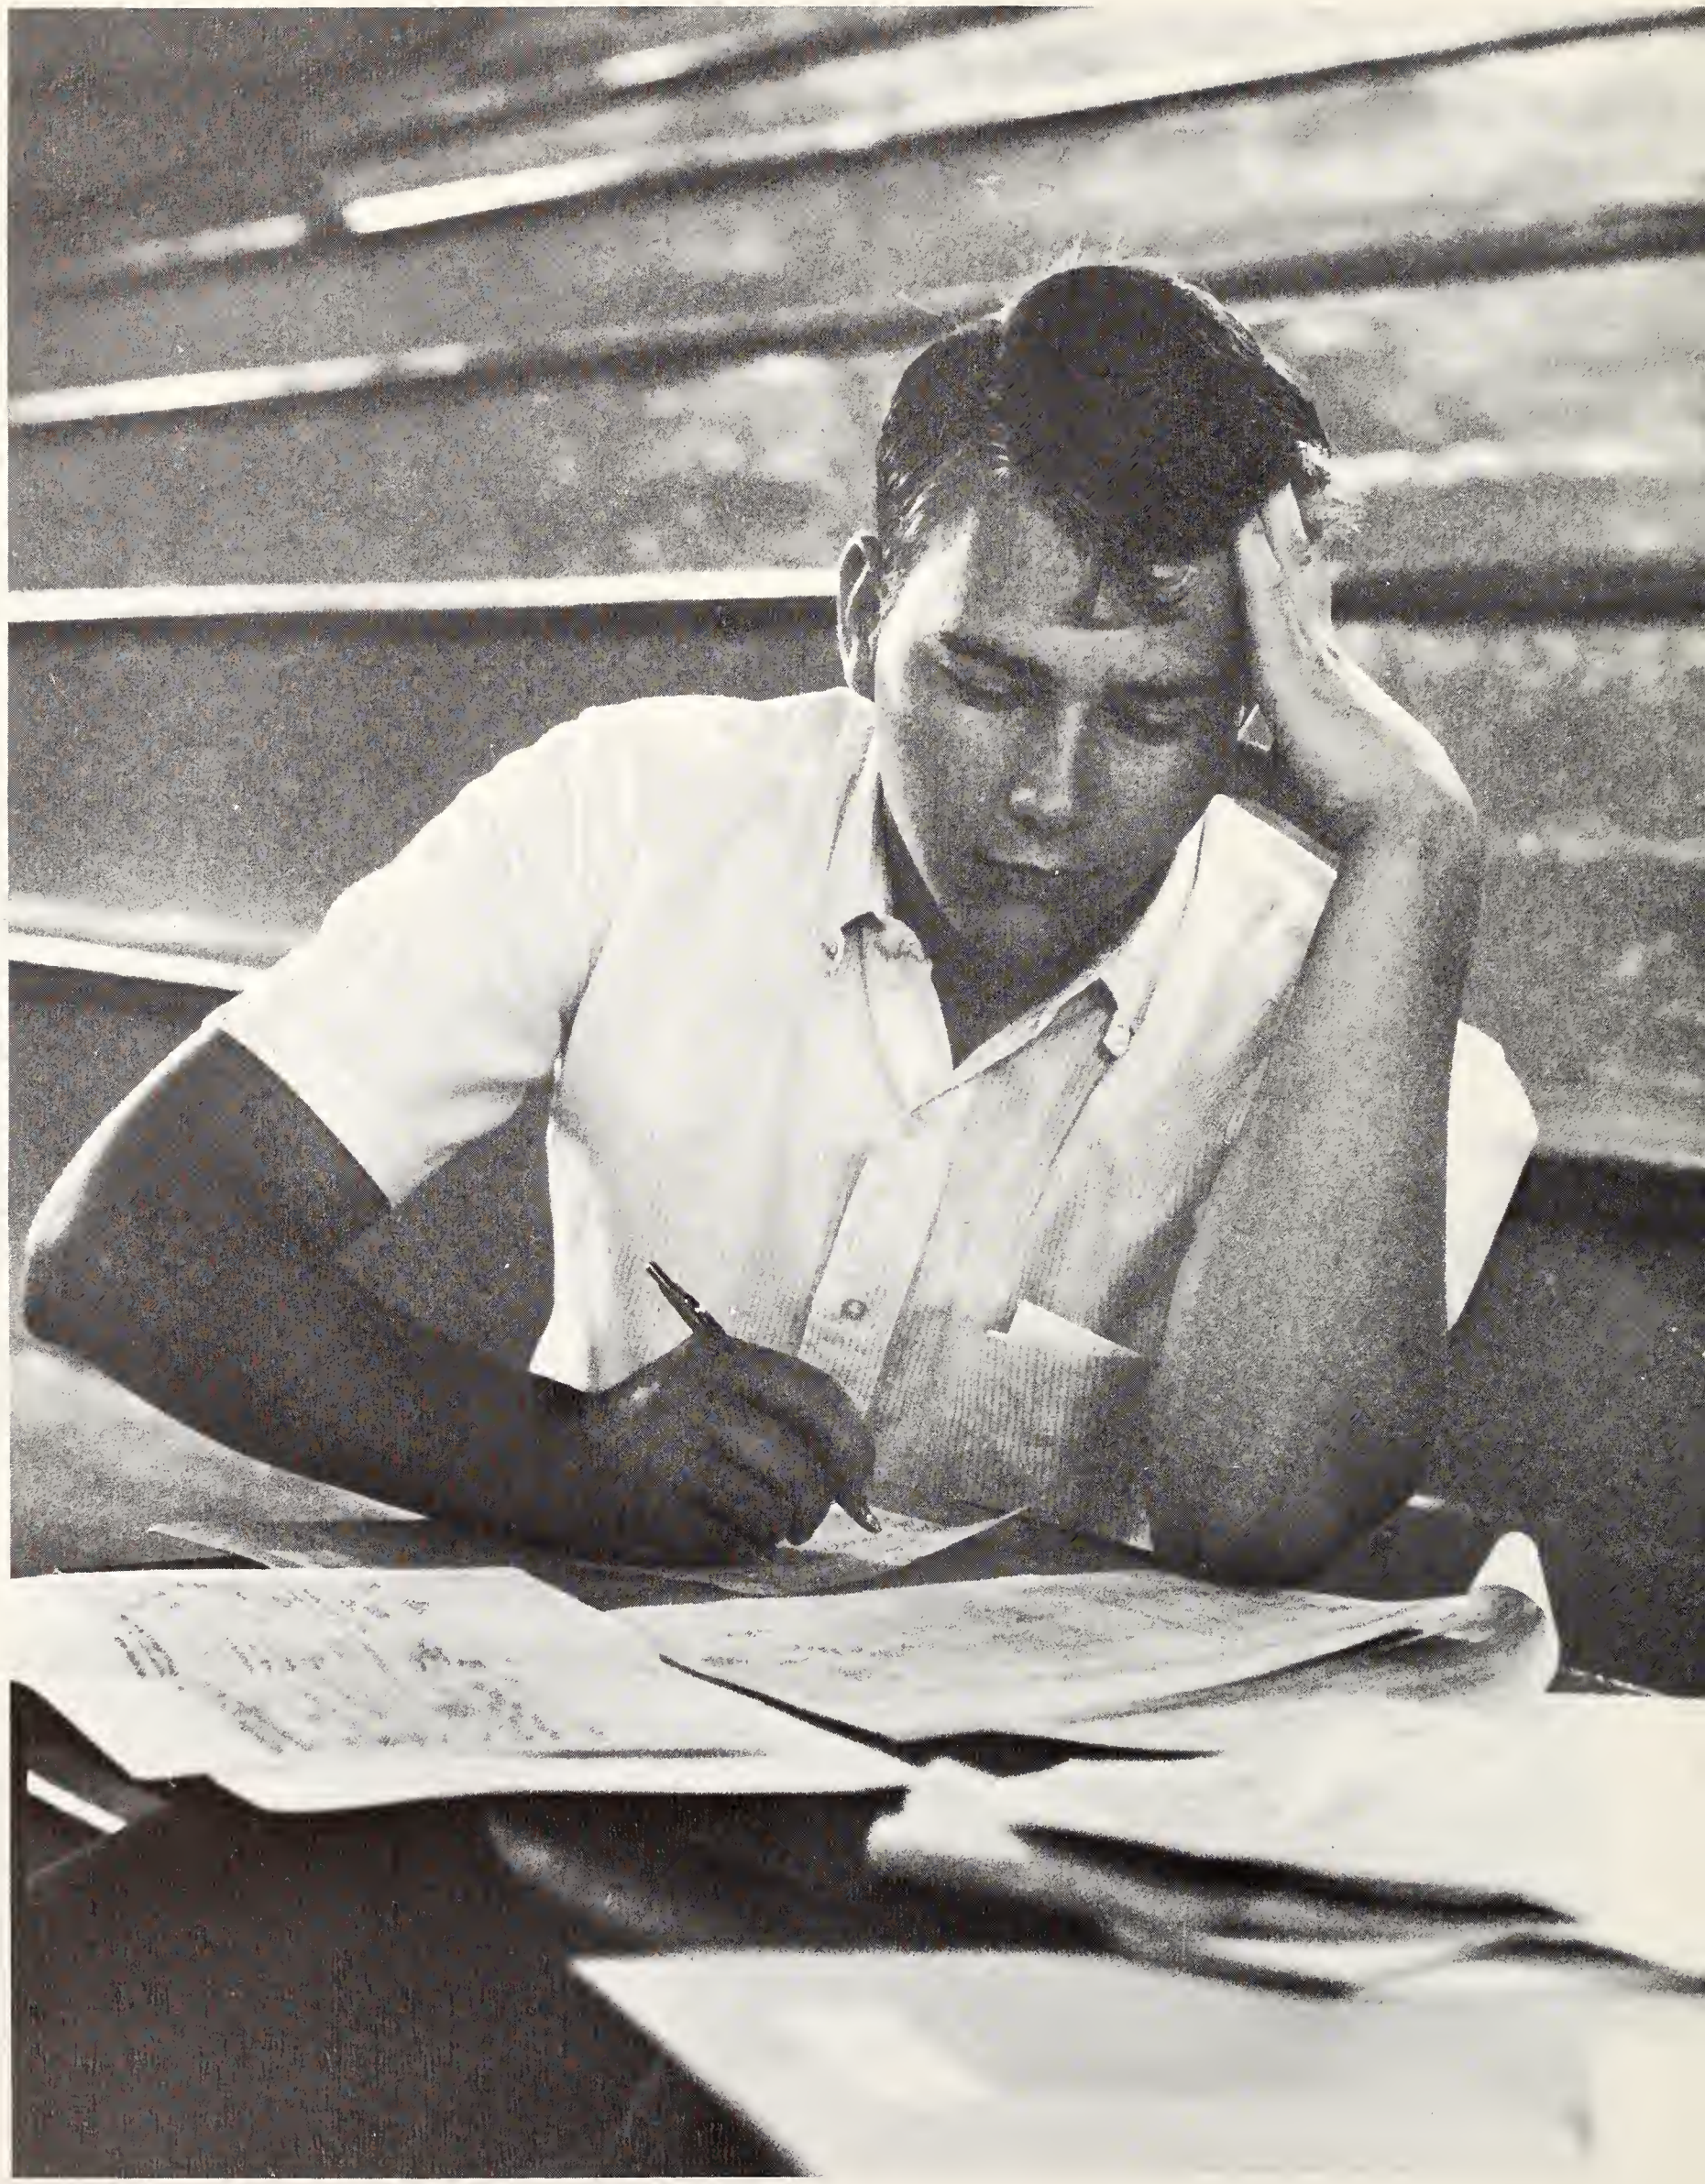
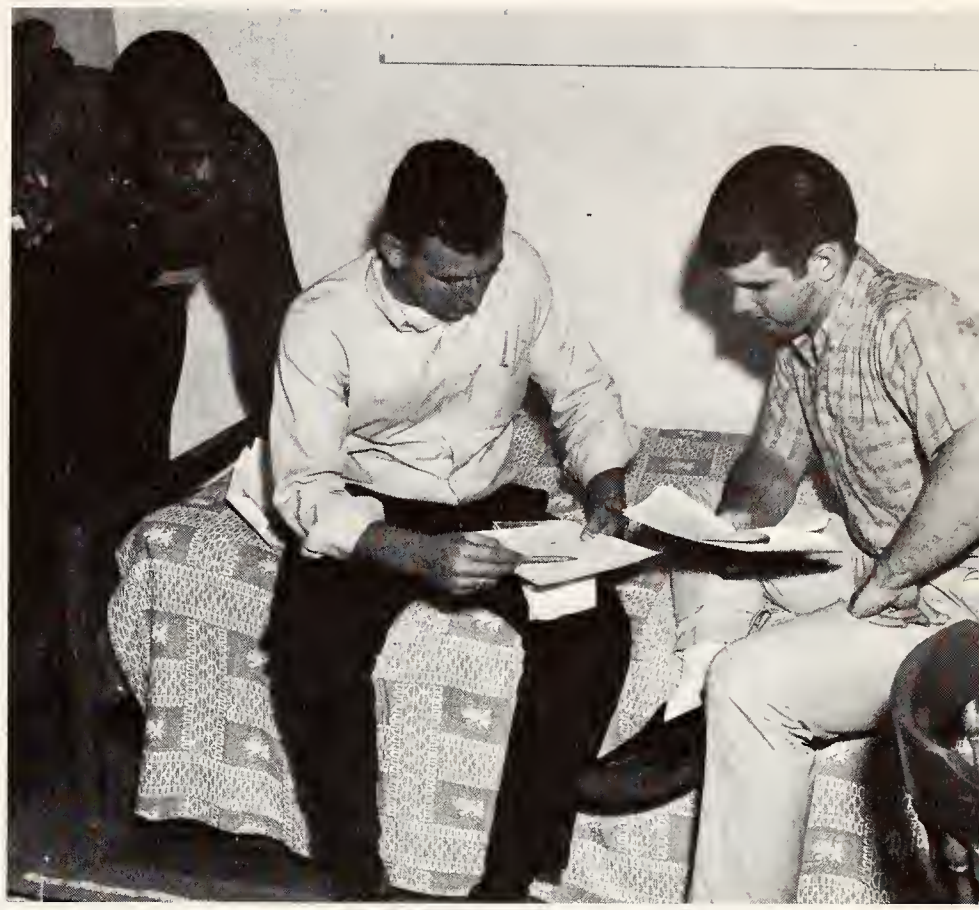
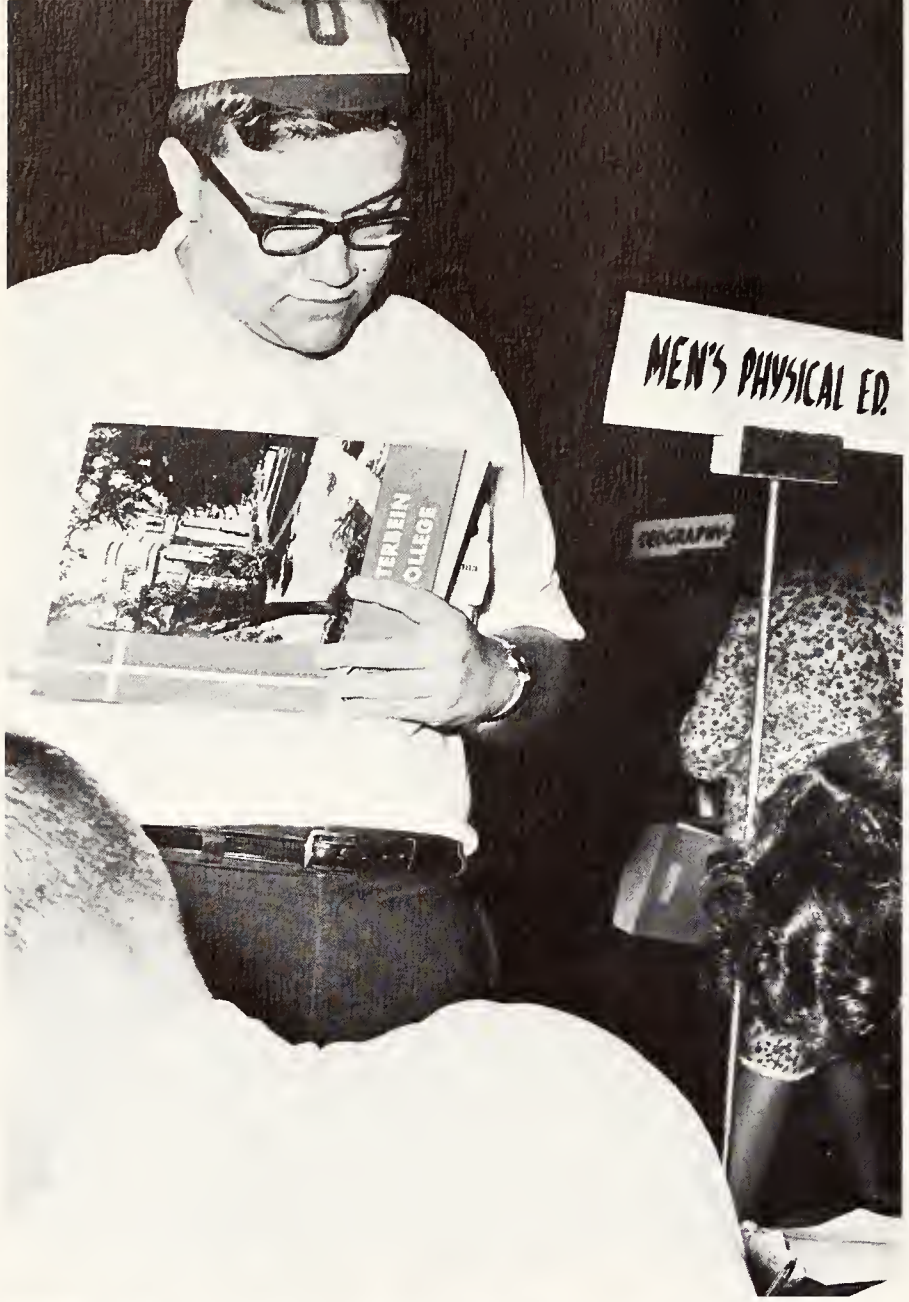
OTTERBEIN COLLEGE
WESTERVILLE, OHIO



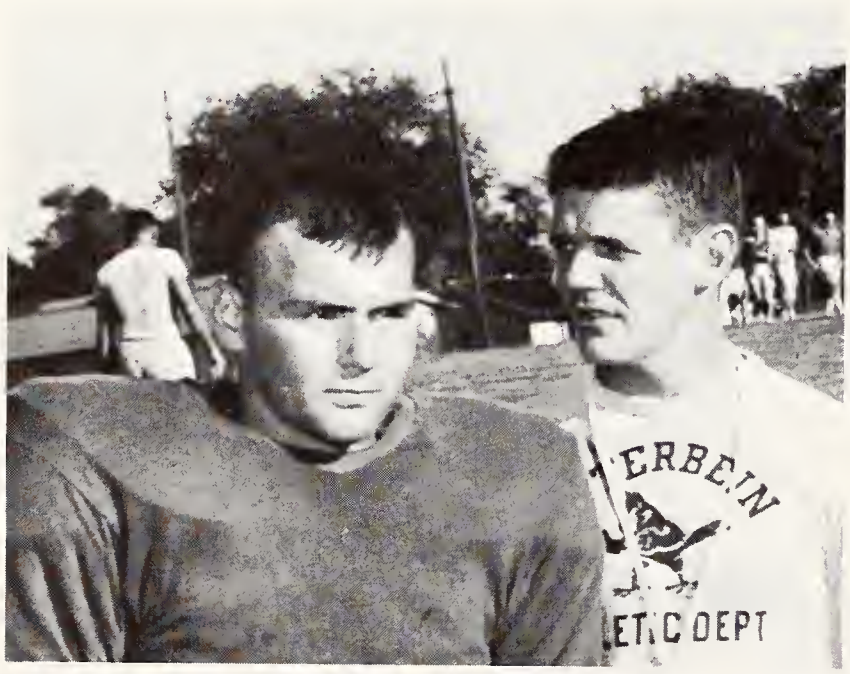
Another year began at Otterbein with faces both old and new . . . an air of excitement and confusion reigned throughout . . . as September wove a fall-time splendor upon dusty books and rooms and students' heads.



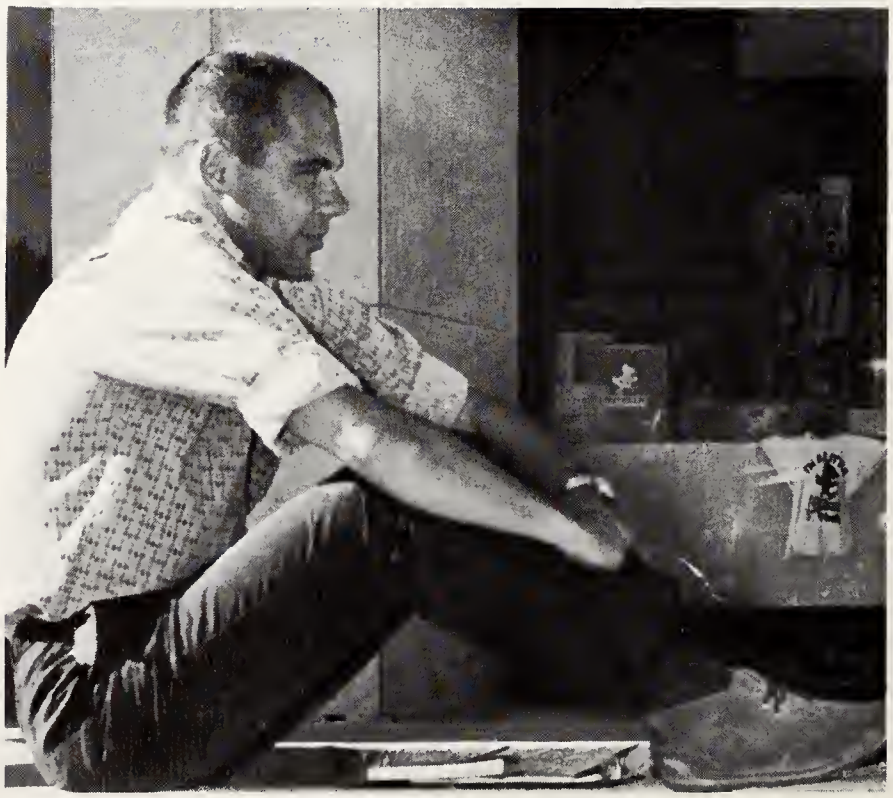
. . . Standing in lines, lines, and more lines . . . greeting old friends and making new ones . . . one of the crowd pushing and being pushed . . . registration, dorm meetings, talks with your advisor, wait, wait in line . . .



. . . Football practice . . . freshman bonfire . . . a home football game . . . a mighty cheer . . . all outlets testing the strength, agility, and tenacity of young college blood . . .

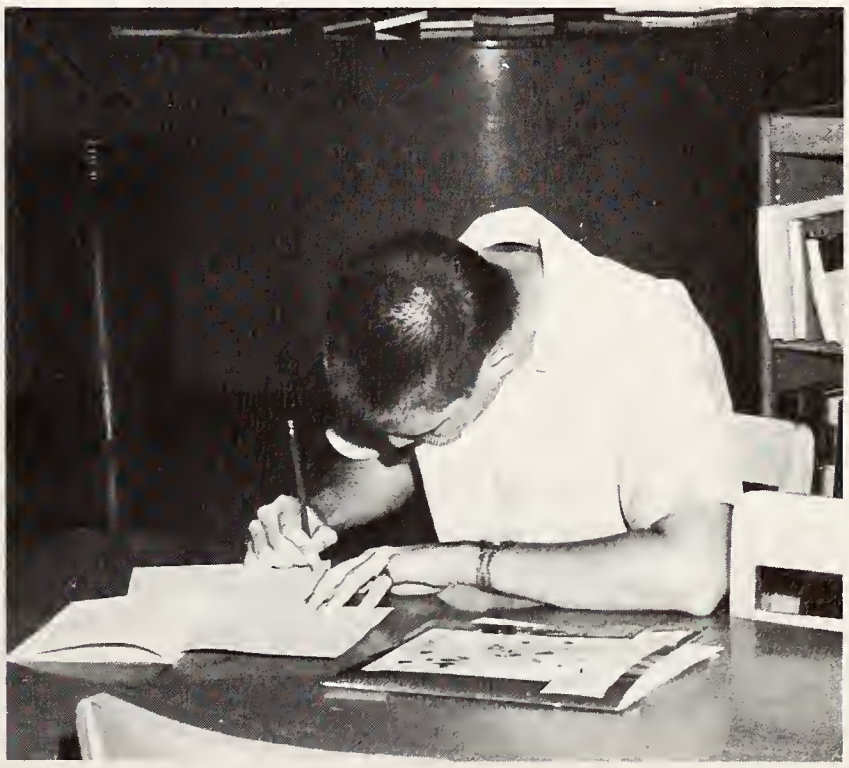


When the books became fuzzy—there was . . . a study break at the 'Cardinal's Roost' . . . a moment of relaxation on a step . . . the serenity of isolation . . . just to think it over . . .

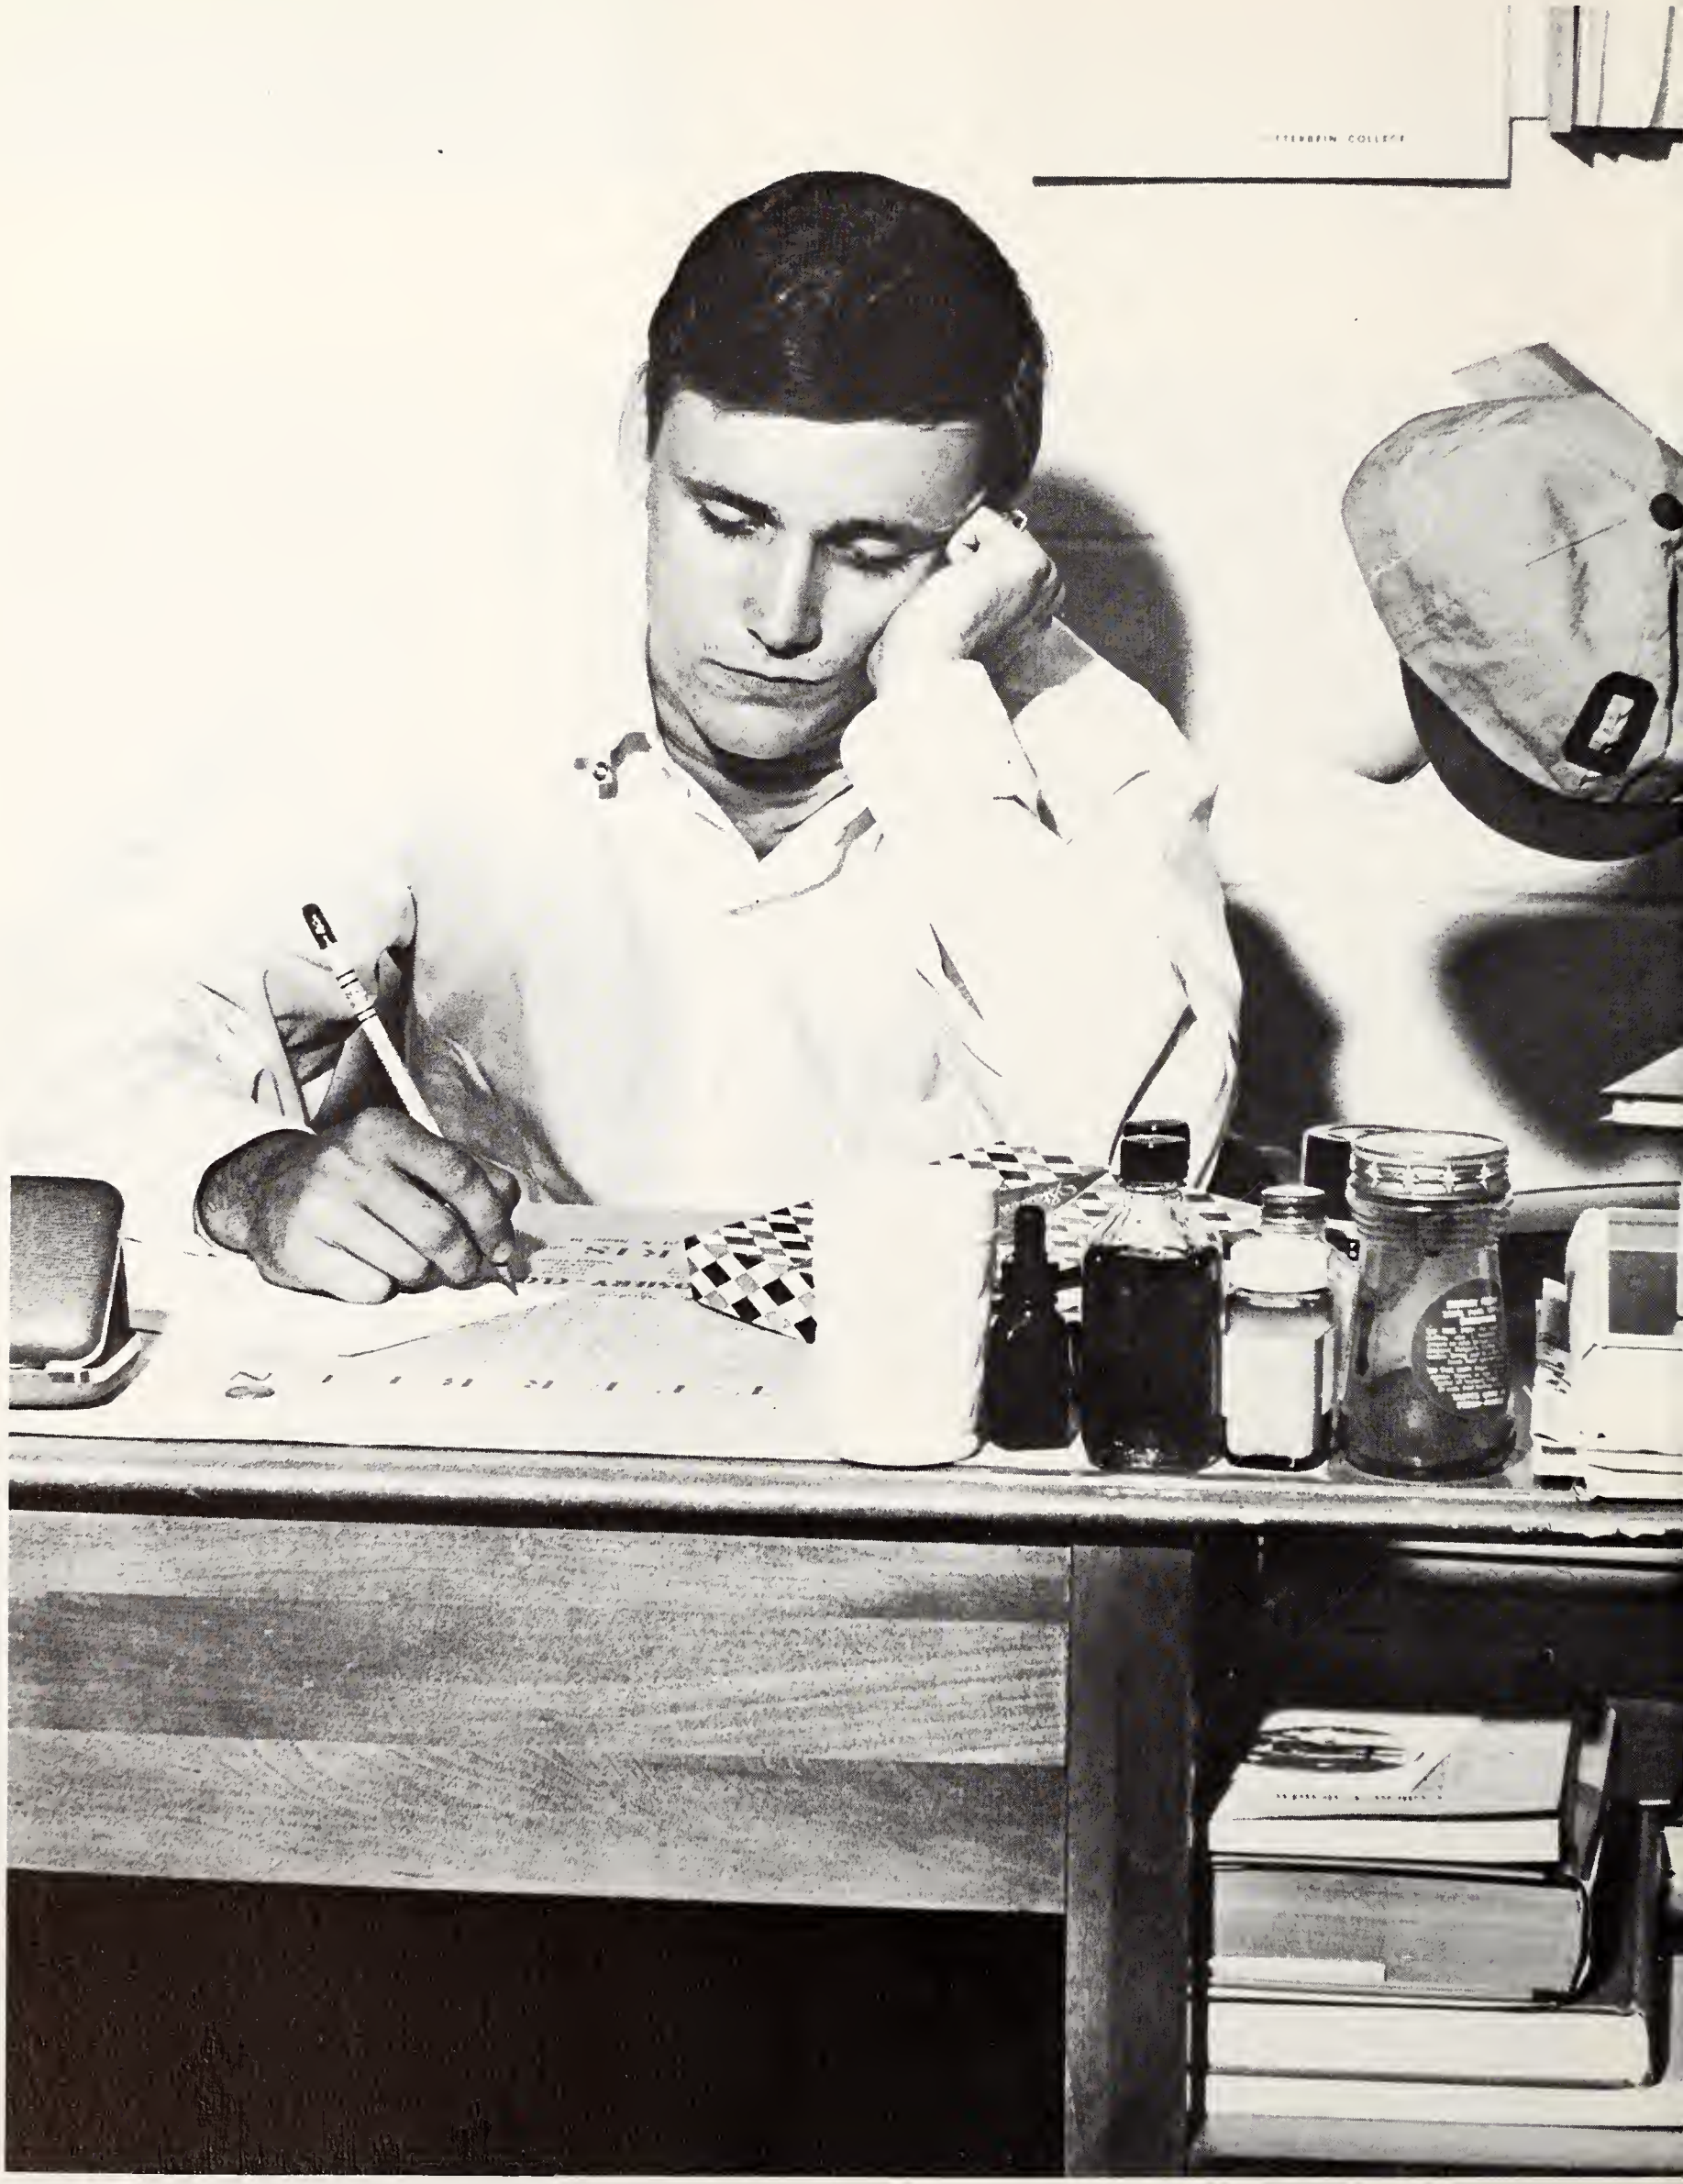


Coca-Cola

And then the purpose, the reason for being here seemed to suddenly permeate into study rooms, laboratories, bookstores . . . the masks of comedy and cheer took on a sober and serious facade . . .



Each building, room, teacher, student blended together into an aura of electrifying unity . . . the grasp for knowledge infiltrated the minds, spirits, and bodies throughout the year . . .



Homecoming

With the late October weather beautifully obliging, Homecoming 1963 was an exciting and eventful day. Because of the thirtieth anniversary of Homecoming on Otterbein's campus, all of the past queens were invited to participate in the events of the day. Eighteen returned and were feted at a coffee hour before the morning parade. The largest Homecoming Parade in Otterbein's history wound through the streets of Westerville with Queen Jill Jenkins, Theta Nu, and her court smiling and waving happily to the crowd.

Homecoming, at Otterbein, is perhaps one of the biggest and most important events of the year. Early in the school year each sorority elects a sophomore member as its candidate. In the weeks which follow, each candidate is interviewed for the campus newspaper. At the same time the candidate's sorority sisters are preparing a serenade for her to be presented in Cowan Hall the night before the big election. The Monday morning of the election finds each candidate on stage in chapel being interviewed by the Student Senate president. The announcement of the queen is made the following Friday in the T & C.

Homecoming

The excitement of the half-time ceremonies grew as Queen Jill performed her first official duty and announced the winners of the float contest. This year's winners were Kings Fraternity, Grand Prize and first in the fraternity contest, and Greenwich Sorority, first in the sorority contest. Homecoming Chairman, Jerry Wassem, then presented the past queens to the crowd. Then, on with the game!

T.G.I.F. . . . those moments of peace were there too . . . sauntering down silent walks . . . gathering in the crowded 'Pit' . . . simply being here together as a promise to the future . . .

The promise of the future knocks at our door as we scan the miles before our individual destinations. Our door stands between the present and the future as a sign that what we accomplish at Otterbein determines how fast we shall run to our chosen post. Before the tomorrow of anything comes the today . . . we present the today of Otterbein College to hold in memory, joy, and pride.

The Trustees met in Hall Auditorium to discuss issues.

Annually, the BOARD OF TRUSTEES meet to discuss issues and to act upon reports and recommendations. This year the board chaired by Dr. Harold Boda came on campus November 6 and 7. The Otterbein College Trustees saw Otterbein's needs and foresaw her problems, and acted accordingly, to promote her well-planned growth.

Dignity, diplomacy, and intellect are requisites for a college administrator and all are embodied in President Lynn W. Turner. Besides co-ordinating the work of the faculty, deans and trustees, President Turner works with various student-faculty committees to further understanding within the college community. Much of his time is spent representing Otterbein in meetings and conventions as well as speaking to alumni clubs to inform them of Otterbein's progress. Meeting him on Campus or at a sports event, PRESIDENT TURNER commands campus respect as a far-sighted leader interested in all aspects of college life.

DEAN MILLER, Dean of the College, maintains a position as an advisor to the President on faculty and academic affairs. He is responsible for curriculum study, faculty teaching load, and the cultural and academic enrichment of the college. Rushing from meeting to meeting, office to office, and student to student, DEAN VAN SANT, Dean of Students, is concerned with student needs and problems. In addition to listening to student complaints and advising the President on important issues, Dean Van serves the students in the capacity of adviser to W.S.G.B., the Panhellenic Council, and Alpha Lambda Delta, and the Calendar Committee. DEAN TAYLOR filled a new position this year of Assistant Dean of Students. REV. POHLY, Director of Religious Activities, is responsible for the Convocation Program and spiritual life on Otterbein Campus. The deans showed a genuine concern for all students. Through common sense and fair play, friendliness and tact, they worked for and with the student as an invaluable link to the administration.

TREASURER of the COLLEGE, Bert Horn, finds little respite from a steady stream of paper work.

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS, Michael Kish, and DIRECTOR OF TESTING AND INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH, Elsley Witt, look over a recent report.

Virgil Raver, REGISTRAR, and Pete Baker, ASSISTANT TO THE REGISTRAR, confer on college policies.

VICE PRESIDENT in charge of DEVELOPMENT, Dr. Wade Miller, has an endless task.

Craig Gifford, DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE INFORMATION, is the consultant for all college publications.

"Sandy" Frye, retiring BUSINESS MANAGER, will now become consultant to Otterbein construction.

The fantastically complex BUSINESS OFFICE is managed by Sanders Frye and Albert Sanders. The duties handled by this office include maintenance, repairs, new construction, purchasing, the bookstore, dining facilities, financing, and government loans. The college GUEST HOUSE, managed by Mrs. Esther McGee, is available for prospective students and their families, guest lecturers, visiting high school counselors, prospective faculty people, parents and guests of Otterbein College students.

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGER, Albert Sanders, works on another plan.

HEALTH SERVICES: Mrs. Crane R.N., Mrs. Botts, Secretary, Mrs. Wood R.N., Mrs. Kintigh R.N., Nancy Holdren R.N., Mrs. Pryfogle R.N.

While students talked, studied, and slept, their needs were forecasted and fulfilled. FOOD SERVICE relentlessly prepared over 1,300 meals a day for dining hall consumption. The HEALTH SERVICE was constantly available for student ailments. SECURITY POLICE kept up a constant surveillance during the quiet hours. Finally, AUDIO-VISUAL silently provided those film supplements professors used. These were the people who worked behind the scenes to do the services we took for granted.

The lay-out staff searches for ideas in the many reference books in the SIBYL office.

Among the many fruitful enterprises which Otterbein students undertake is the publication of the SIBYL. Beyond the constant rush for deadlines, schedules, and layouts, beats the true essence of Otterbein tradition manifested by the SIBYL's staff of editors, photographers, copy writers, typists, business managers, advisors and many others. No other body of workers on campus strives to retain the memories of people, events, and customs which are so vital to the Otterbein story. The SIBYL this year, under the able leadership of Lana Rinehart and Frank Dustman, proves that the quality of the student is inherent within the context of a praiseworthy yearbook.

The purpose of a newspaper is to inform and to comment on any items of interest to the public. Otterbein's Newspaper, the TAN AND CARDINAL, seeks to maintain these two objectives as well as to incorporate special features. TAN AND CARDINAL illustrates the growth of harmony in communicating to faculty, students, and alumni the continued recognition of the news media in a modern world.

Working on an ad layout are Jane King, Chuck Taylor, Diana Linkous, and business manager Clifford Spohn.

BOARD members are Jack Wright, Larry Beck, Barry Reich, Rene Dellinger, and Barb Billings.

The PUBLICATIONS BOARD, under the leadership of Jack Wright, defines, decides, and decrees the action and policies of both the TAN AND CARDINAL and the SIBYL. Included in its many duties is the selection of the editors of both these student publications.

Jack Wright calls for a vote.

Engineers Bob Fisher and Bob Richards make sure every show runs smoothly.

Whether it's announcing or engineering or writing continuity, the staff of WOBN is always prepared to fill those evenings of study of relaxation with music, news, athletic presentations, public interest programs, and a wealth of information designed with the community in mind. From 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. Otterbein's radio dial is set to 91.5 FM.

Station manager Jim Miskimen is on the air.

Traffic director Dave Sampson selects music for "Command Performance."

For those who plan to enter a career in medicine, ALPHA EPSILON DELTA, an international honorary for premedical students, gives one an excellent opportunity to investigate the many facets of a vocation in medicine. Significant to this organization are the standards of scholastic achievement and the encouragement of excellence and appreciation in the field of pre-medicine. Through organizations such as ALPHA EPSILON DELTA, the key to the alleviation of human suffering can be obtained.

The national science honorary, SIGMA ZETA, seeks to encourage under-graduate work in science. It sponsors a variety of programs including lectures, and a science fair for the local high school students. The active membership includes only juniors and seniors, but sophomores who are eligible can become associate members.

PHI SIGMA IOTA officers are Miriam Edgerley, Mrs. Vance, Jim Danhoff, Mr. Neff, Carolyn Osborn.

PHI SIGMA IOTA members enjoy an informal lecture.

The Romance languages entail far more than a set of earphones, a tape recorder, and doodles scribbled on a lab table. PHI SIGMA IOTA, the national honorary Romance Language society, seeks to integrate within its membership the traditions, attitudes, and customs of other lands through an appreciation of Romance literature and culture.

PHI ALPHA THETA is the highest recognition for students in the history and government curriculum. These history majors and minors promote worthwhile and interesting programs featuring lectures, films, conferences, and conventions. Even more important they are a group dedicated to the values of maintaining the democratic idealism this country first initiated.

PHI ALPHA THETA members: FIRST ROW: Kay Flickner, Lenore Brobst, Dianne Aborn, Barb Zirkle, Linda Macarie, Carolyn VanAsdale. ROW 2: Bill Rivers, Dr. Hancock, Peggy Haneke, Janet Cook, Virginia Leader, Mary Ann Ruehle, Bonnie Reams, Ellen Bathrick, Roy Manley. ROW 3: Steve Smith, Mike Cochran, Bill Hankison, Bob Kintigh, Fred Bohse, Bill Varga.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA is the national honorary for freshmen women. It requires that its members attain a 3.5 scholastic average in their freshman work. Members sponsor a "Smarty Party" in the fall for incoming freshmen women.

Of all the honoraries represented on Otterbein's campus, none is more distinguished than TORCH AND KEY. Members of this organization are Seniors, occasionally Juniors, who have exceptional cumulative records, and a few faculty members and alumni who are distinguished for some scholarly accomplishment. Throughout the year they serve the campus, always working for scholarship and leadership.

Creativity and pursuit of imaginative thought are the marks of the QUIZ AND QUILL, Otterbein's literary honorary. Its members are juniors and seniors who have exhibited talent in the field of creative writing. Each year QUIZ AND QUILL sponsors a literary contest, and publishes a booklet of works by Otterbein students and alumni.

The HOME ECONOMICS CLUB is made up of Home Economics majors and minors. This organization tries to prepare its members to be leaders in their homes and communities by discussing such things as interior decoration, fashion, and professional attitudes at their bi-monthly meetings.

Refer it to a committee . . . That always seems the best way to get an important job done, and there are four very indispensible committees on the O.C. campus. The CALENDAR COMMITTEE plans the social year and approves requests for certain dates for activities of campus organizations. It is the duty of the newly-formed CAMPUS SOCIAL COMMITTEE and the CAMPUS CENTER COMMITTEE to co-ordinate all-campus events, parties, and movies for the mutual benefit of the entire Otterbein family. The committee that studies problems of mutual concern to faculty and students is the STUDENT-FACULTY RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

The famed Otterbein College Concert Band.

Mr. Motycka uses his baton to "strike" up a point.

Otterbein "halftimes" were a combination of skill and style in 1964. Under the direction of Mr. Alan Bradley, THE MARCHING BAND molded into formation after long afternoons of practice, mistakes, and cold hands. Our band was always there on the bleachers playing the "Otterbein Battle Song" after every touchdown.

The OTTERBEIN CONCERT BAND, fifty-six members strong and also under the direction of Mr. Bradley, spent many hours of strenuous practice before presenting a home concert in February.

MAJORETTES: Roseanna Mansfield, Sharon Banbury, Kathy Dietz, Marilyn Hutchings, Marcia Sanders.

DRUM MAJORS: Dale Fisher, Jerry Bishop.

The MARCHING BAND leads the Homecoming Parade.

Music, music everywhere . . . in Lambert Hall and in the hearts of the members of music organizations like DELTA OMICRON, the women's honor sorority for music majors and minors, which works to maintain the high musical standards of Otterbein's Music Department. M.E.N.C. or Music Educator's National Conference is interested in improving public school music, and the members study principles and techniques of teaching music.

Recitals, recitals . . . The ORGANISTS' GUILD of Otterbein under the direction of Professor Lawrence Frank annually attends several recitals in and around the Franklin County area to widen their appreciation and knowledge of organ music. Besides learning by listening, Guild members learn by doing, that is, by taking organ lessons and presenting their own recitals. Other Otterbein music lovers enjoy participating in STRING ENSEMBLE and working together to present a concert.

Service was the project, greater understanding was the goal. Beginning with the Big-Lil' Sis program, through the Y mixers, the Freshman Talent Show, the Christmas Tree lighting, intramural sports, mothers' weekend, the Y seminar, to the May Day Breakfast, the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. each played prominent roles in campus affairs. Working together, the "Y" presented "Dig Into Diversity" this year's seminar. Lectures and discussions attempted to instill students with an acute awareness of local, national, and international problems . . . how they are approached, how they affect students, and how they are solved.

An Otterbein co-ed in prayer.

Each Monday and Wednesday morning at 9:40 A.M., Otterbein students take their assigned seats in Cowan Hall to participate in CONVOCATION. The chaplain, Rev. Pohly, is the director of "spiritual life" on campus and, with the aid of the SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE, co-ordinates the programs and activities of the campus religious organizations.

Besides his other duties, Rev. Pohly found time to organize Otterbein students from foreign countries into the INTERNATIONAL CLUB.

Otterbein has several Christian organizations which are coordinated under the COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS. C.C.A. sponsors Student Sharing Week, Religion-in-Life-Week, and spiritual life retreats. DELTA TAU CHI, a pre-professional religious fraternity, is open to all who are considering the full-time Christian vocations. The CHRISTIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION promotes religious expression, understanding and growth through a program of worship, study, fellowship and service.

YOUNG DEMOCRAT officers celebrating their victory are George Christ, and Rose Anna Mansfield.

The Republicans may not have won the Presidential election this year, but that did not stop the "never die" attitude of the YOUNG REPUBLICANS on campus. Requirements for membership in the YOUNG REPUBLICANS include a steadfast dedication to the political idealism which constitutes the Republican party.

On the other side of the platform ride the YOUNG DEMOCRATS who are enjoying the "Great Society". Their objectives are principally the same as their opponents. They also try to promote interest in politics among college students.

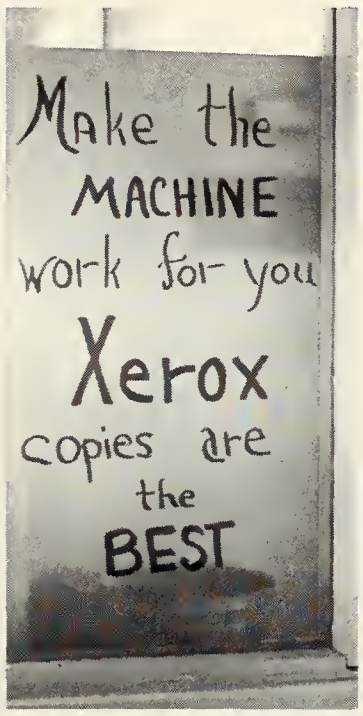
The Otterbein Chapter of the OHIO STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION is one of the largest organizations on campus with a total membership of 223. Meetings are held monthly and the programs are planned to meet the interests of everyone in both secondary and elementary education. Also OSEA developes professional attitudes toward education and provides projects to give valuable experience not always available in the classroom. Social activities include a Spring Banquet during which the newly elected officers are installed.

YASNY members are John Rudolf, Don Shumaker, Joe Laubie, Dr. Hart, Paul Bowen, Tim Merrick, Cliff Spohn, Vivian Morgan, Bert Fields.



The SOCIETY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF MANAGEMENT is the national professional organization of management in industry, commerce, government, and education. S.A.M. undertook many projects this year—one of which proved to be an asset to the college. YASNY provided for the college a Xerox 914 copying machine which is used by faculty and students alike. The 'You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet' group is a non-profit organization that allows practical business experience for students and members of S.A.M. Membership to S.A.M. is open to anyone interested in any field of corporation management such as sales, production, and advertising.

The initials AFROTC command the attention of all students on Otterbein's campus. Whether it is the Rifle team, Drill teams, or the Angel Flight, the distinct characteristics of military protocol are always observed. Training to serve our country in the Air Force, these young men and women add a touch of dignity to the campus at all times whether in uniform on Wednesdays, raising the flag each day, or competing in drill and rifle meets with schools all over the United States.

Attitudes fluctuate! Most students obey, some rebell, and so there is a need for campus regulations and governing bodies such as W.S.G.B. and M.S.G.B. to enforce them. All students living in campus housing are automatically under the jurisdiction of the WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT BOARD or the MEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT BOARD. These organizations endeavor to promote a high standard of social conduct and to maintain all rules of the college concerning student actions.

IT WASN'T JUST ANY POSITION. It was an important and necessary position. It meant wielding a gavel over a large or select group, and it required leadership. Leadership meant the ability to represent your group even under the hardest criticism. Leadership meant the ability to guide your group, the change the unpleasant aspects, to always strive for perfection. And more than that, leadership meant an open channel for student expression.

EPSILON KAPPA TAU

Officers of Epsilon Kappa Tau are M. Goembel, N. Torbush J. James, C. Pulsing.

Epsilon Kappa Tau, the fourth oldest sorority on Otterbein's Campus, was founded in 1918. Pink and white, the colors are represented by the delicate pink, five-petaled flower, the Trailing Arbutus, which also gives EKT its name. The silver shield of purity symbolizes active membership in Arbutus. Each Arbutus girl strives to uphold the creed. "I would Be True", and a principle on which Arbutus was founded, "Eros Kai Timi", meaning "Love and Honor" is still treasured today. Nancy Torbush represented EKT on the Fall Homecoming Court.

KAPPA PHI OMEGA

Officers of Kappa Phi Omega are S. Handel, L. Gillespie, W. McFarland, S. Perlick.

"Sisters and friends unto the end" is the motto of Kappa Phi Omega. Kappas was organized in 1921 by a group of young women from Westerville with turquoise and gold as the sorority's colors. The yellow chrysanthemum was chosen as the official flower. The four goals of all Kappas are symbolized by the four rubies on the Kappa pin—leadership, scholarship, friendship, and dedication. Also on the pin are the white pearls symbolizing the unity of the group.

Vivacious Blanche Geho was Kappas representative on the Fall Homecoming Court.

RHO KAPPA DELTA

Officers of Rho Kappa Delta are M. Edgerly, M. Crow, B. Zirkle, J. Benson.

Rho Kappa Delta, or Arcady originated in 1923 and returned to the campus in 1961. The squirrel is the sorority mascot, and the flowers are the purple pansy and white carnation. The objectives of each Arcady girl; obtaining knowledge, strengthening and encouraging friendship, and promoting recreation, are represented on Arcady's crest. "Thoughtful, Each of All" is the motto of each sister. The sorority's colors are burgundy and white. Sweet Sharon Bell was Arcady's representative on the Fall Homecoming Court.

Tau Delta was founded in 1921 by 10 Otterbein alumnae who chose the motto "Tome Dachi". The white rose and the multi-colored sweet pea are the sorority flowers, with sapphire blue and white as the colors. Deltas' sorority motto is "To thine own self be true" and they have chosen as their mascot the Siamese cat. The ten pearls in a circle on the sorority pin symbolize friendship. Kay Blackledge was Delta's lovely representative on the Fall Homecoming Court.

TAU EPSILON MU

Officers of Tau Epsilon Mu are H. Olbrick, B. Powers, L. Hopkinson, P. Haneke, and J. Paugh.

Seven young women organized Tau Epsilon Mu Sorority in 1914, with purple and gold as the sorority colors. The flower is the Talisman Rose. On the crest are the scarab, the lamp of learning, and the book. For their mascot Talisman girls have the "green worm" and the motto is "Everybody's Lonesome". Talisman sponsored the "Basketball Bounce" as their all-campus event. Talisman's double honors this year were the celebration of their fiftieth anniversary and having Betty Powers as Maid-of-Honor at Fall Homecoming.

ETA PHI MU

Officers of Eta Phi Mu are J. Danhoff, G. Christ, T. Flory, and P. Hardy.

Eta Phi Mu fraternity, founded in 1923, today holds high the principles on which it was founded. "Let Brotherly Love Continue" is the motto of the fraternity. The Edelweiss signifying bravery and purity, is the official flower and blue and gold are the colors. The crest contains a gold circle signifying friendship. The 3 points of the crest indicate the triangle of love: body, soul, and mind. Jonda was named for the love of Jonathan and David.

PI KAPPA PHI

Officers of Pi Kappa Phi are G. Miles, K. Newill, P. Miller, R. Amelung, Mrs. Pierce, J. Moore, B. Shackson, T. Sporck, and T. Mickey.

Pi Kappa Phi, or Country Club, was founded in 1908 and so named because it first met outside the city limits. It was the only fraternity to remain active during World War II. The colors are orange and black, and the fraternity motto is "Staunch friends at all hazards". The crest is significant of the book of open-mindedness, with the noble head of a Caesar. The hands of friendship are clasped on crossed swords, and a group of four chevrons bind the men together.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Officers of Sigma Delta Phi are P. Doran, W. Bennett, K. Smith, W. Hankison, and R. Swick.

Sigma Delta Phi, or Sphinx Fraternity, was first organized in 1919 and thrived until World War II. Sphinx reassembled in 1946. Then, in 1951 all but two of its members were called into the service during the Korean War which again caused its inactivation. In the fall of 1962, Sphinx Fraternity was reactivated by seven students who felt the need for another fraternity. The colors of Sphinx are green and white, and their motto is "Veritasad nostros superomnes" or "Truth to us above all". The flower is the American Beauty Rose.

A word of caution is given in "Earnest."

The plays were chosen. The parts were read. The leads were assigned. The long production process began. Set-crews met to plan, hammer, paint realism for the stage. Opening night finally came; Cowan Hall was filled and the play was a success. Under the combined leadership of Professors Charles Dodrill and Fred Thayer the OTTERBEIN THEATER DEPARTMENT brought onto the stage of Cowan several first-rate productions this year—"Look Homeward, Angel," the arena play, "Sap of Life," directed by student director Jack Wright, "Anastasia," featuring special guest star, Kim Hunter, and "The Importance of Being Earnest."

The stage is set for Anastasia.

WINTER PRINCESS TONI CHURCHES

The excitement of selecting the Winter Princess is equaled by no other contest on campus. The Varsity "O" members vote on the sophomore girls who have never been queen before and select a princess, a maid of honor, and a first attendant. The announcement of their selections is kept a secret until halftime of the homecoming game. Then the searching spotlight sweeps over the crowd until, one by one, the princess, maid of honor, and first attendant have been found in the audience and escorted to their places of honor for the remainder of the game. A dance was held following the game in honor of the princess and her attendants.

T&C Candidates of 1965: Judy Whipp, Eta Phi Mu; Anne Barr, Pi Beta Sigma; Charma Moreland, Lambda Gamma Epsilon; Queen Ellen Trout, Zeta Phi; Marcha Parsettie, Pi Kappa Phi; Eileen Coad, Sigma Delta Phi.

Midway through the I.F.C. Dance a restless silence crept over the room. Soon to be announced was the winner of the T&C crown; the annual contest sponsored by the newspaper. Breaking through the undertone, the M.C. announced that Ellen Trout, candidate of Zeta Phi, was voted Queen. She was then crowned by Sharon Banbury, Miss T.&C. of 1964, and presented a trophy and a dozen red roses by Carolyn Van Asdale, editor of the T&C.

JUMP WEEK KING, GREG SABATINO gets the applause.

1964 Jump King, Tim Pond, crowns Greg.

She said, "May I carry your books ... Let me get the door ..." It was JUMP WEEK and the girls traded places with the boys. Pan-Hellenic Council sponsored the activities of an all-campus show and dance to the theme of "Carousel." The men got the benefit of a little luxury and the coeds got to pick from the Freshman Pledges a Jump Week King. This year the honor went to Greg Sabatino—the T & C's dark horse candidate.

Winners of the Jump Week costume contest are Rick Peterson, Debbie Barndt, Joanne Miller, and Dave Stichweh.

Other aspects of pledging are not so much fun.

QUEEN OF THE MAY, NAN

The loud speaker blared—"By the order of the Queen of the May . . ." and the festivities in her honor began. Under the direction of Mr. Motyckya the Symphony of Winds played selections from "Camelot," while the pages filed down the steps of the bandshell to make an arch for the May Day Court Procession. First to come through the arch was Marilou Holford, followed by Sue Knecht, and Maid of Honor, Ruth Collins. At last, the new QUEEN OF THE MAY, NAN VAN SCOYOC, wound her way through the crowd, down the steps, to take her place at the throne. She was crowned by Heidi Olbrich, and reigned throughout the day at the track meet, the play and the dance.

The ARTIST SERIES, FESTIVAL OF ARTS, and the LECTURE SERIES came to Otterbein, and with it came culturally diverse entertainment. Both American and foreign talent of renown came to the campus. Organist, Robert Noehren, and the string ensemble, I Solisti Di Zagreb, entertained the more classical minded, while Odetta and the Serendipity Singers satisfied the folk-muis set. Count Basie with his jazz band gave a vibrant performance. Spain's colorful Bailes Espanoles presented a truly unique review for Otterbein's enjoyment.

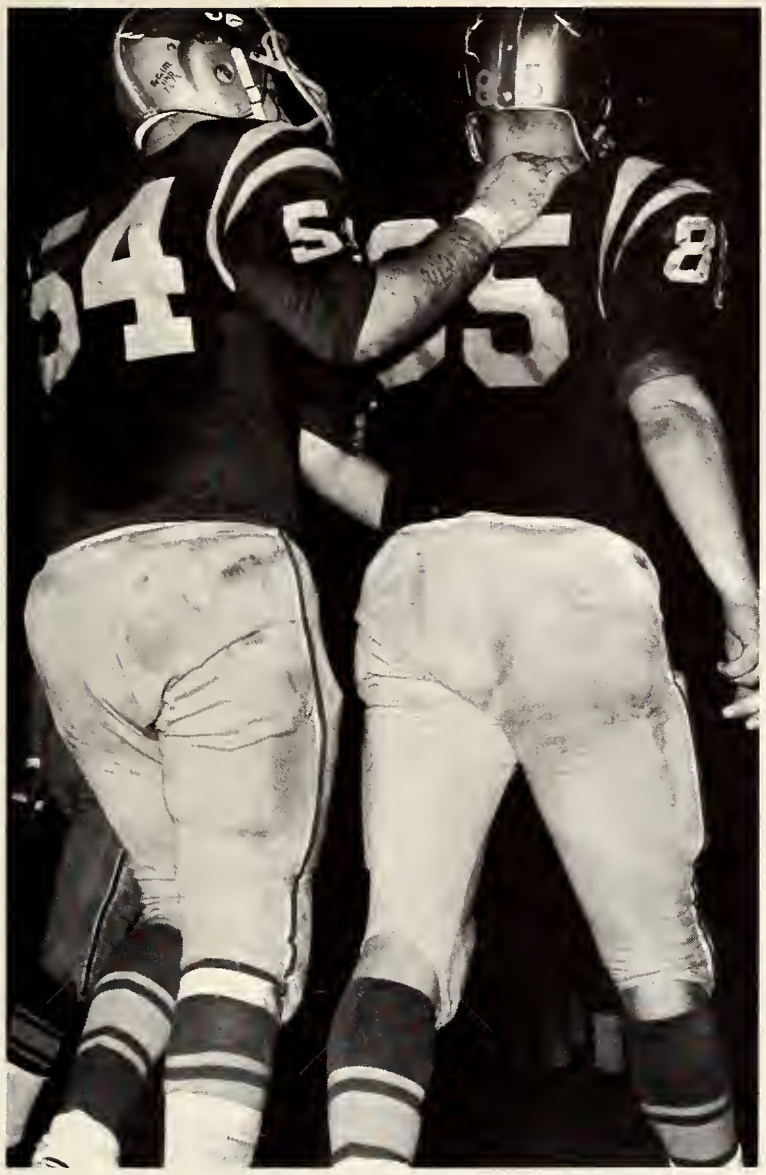
Athletics

Tension mounts as a Cardinal competitor awaits his turn.

Quarterback Dick Reynolds hands the ball off to fullback Dick Amelung as Rick Mauger clears a pathway.

The long, hot, seemingly endless hours of practice proved "fruitful" as the Otterbein Cardinals finished the 1964-65 football season with a respectable 6—3 record. Under the capable leadership of Robert "Moe" Agler, the Otter head coach, the team amazed the enthusiastic crowds with their dazzling displays of running and passing ability.



Bill Gornall gives Dick Morrow a bit of encouragement.

Get out there and get the job done so we can go home.

Two opposing forces line up to battle it out on the gridiron.

One of the major objectives of the Otterbein athlete is to be a member of VARSITY O. This organization, which honors varsity lettermen, is a credit to not only the field which it represents, but also the college and the neighboring community.

The SENIOR LETTERMEN have met their challenge in the field of athletics at Otterbein College and have overcome it in proud style. Now these men are prepared to carry the name and honor of Otterbein throughout their life away from her confines in equally as proud a fashion.

CHEERLEADERS: KNEELING: Mary Lou Holford, Barb Billings. STANDING: Kay Conover, Sue Knecht, Pam Geyer, Lydia Steinmetz.

Pam Geyer adds to the spirit of the crowd as she cheers the Otters on to victory.

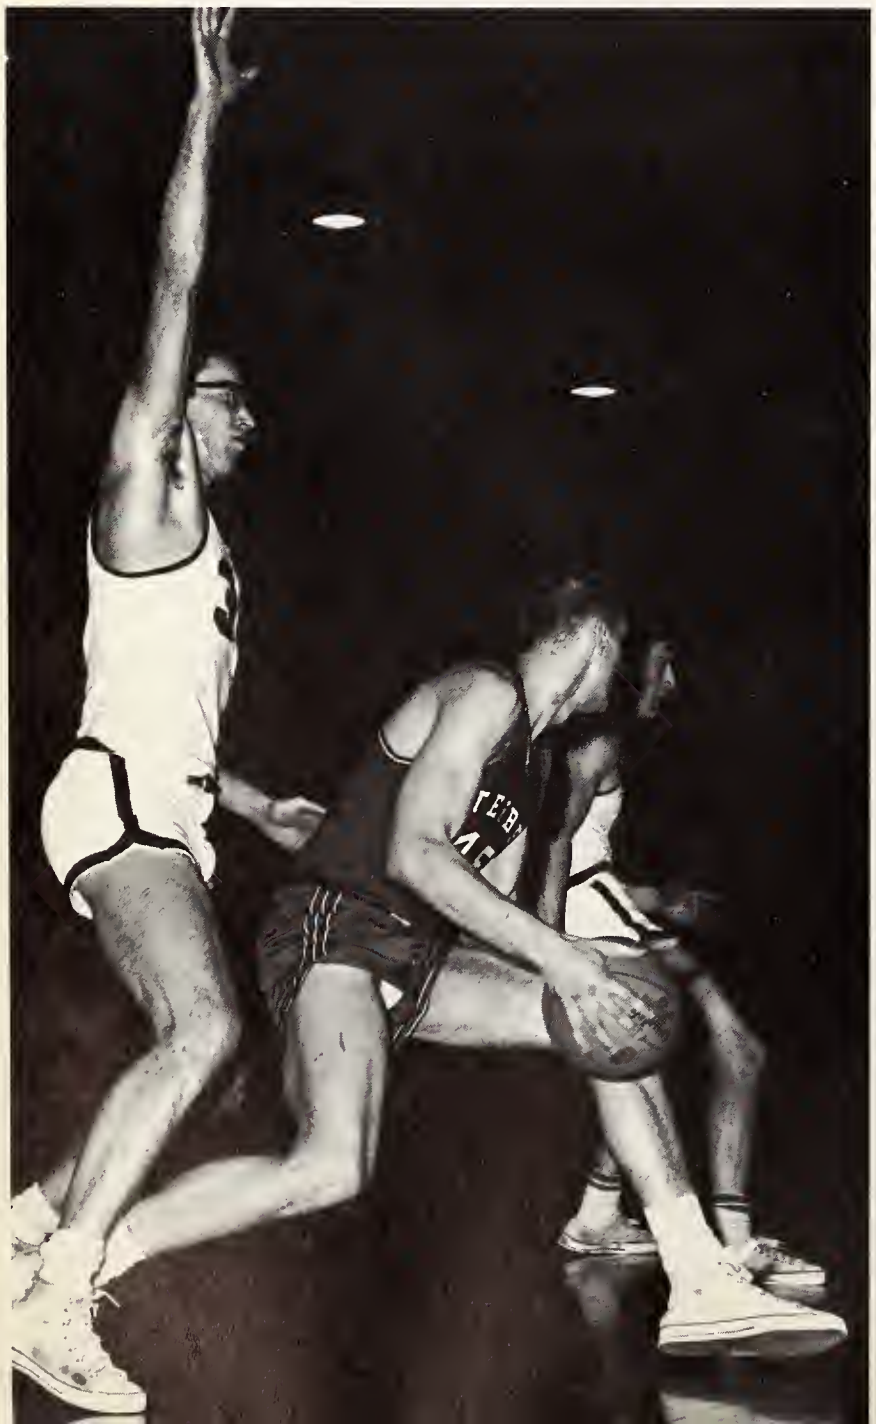
Adding vim and vigor to the spirit of the Otterbein athletic world is a difficult task which the CHEERLEADERS made seem simple. With their enthusiastic cheers and their "peppy" antics, the cheerleaders provided incentive and much needed support to the athletic programs.

The cheerleaders add a spark of warmth to a cold football afternoon.

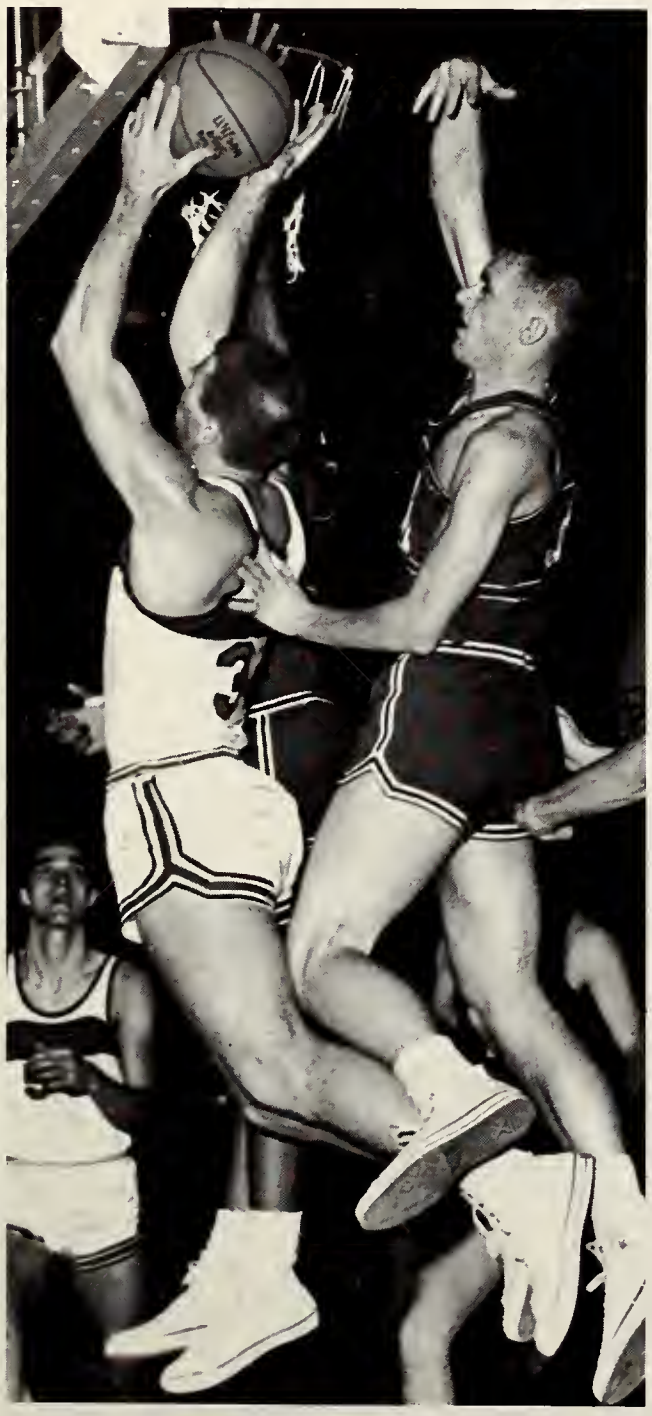
Dick Reynolds starts the season off by jumping through the "Big O".

A close-up of the Otterbein bench.

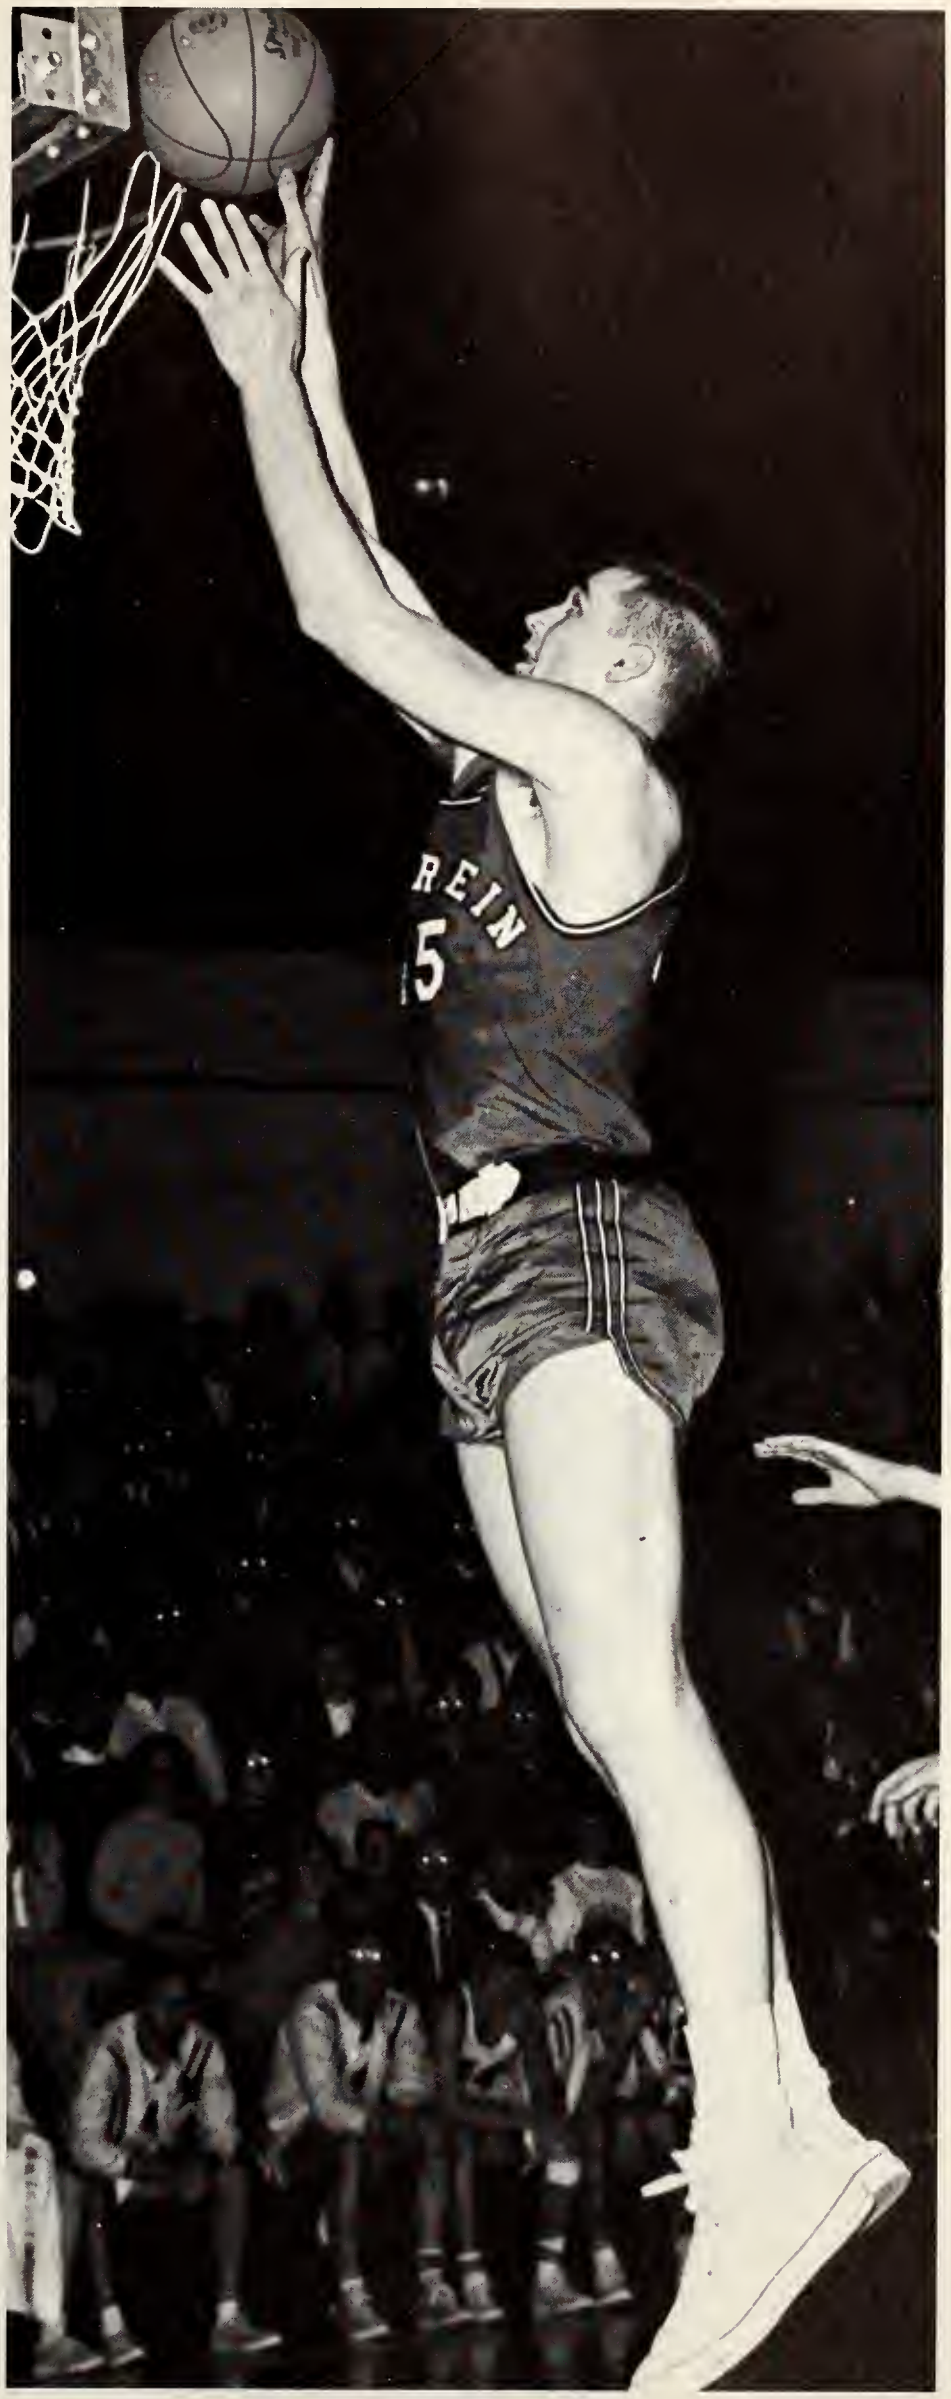
"Goal by Carlos!" A familiar sound that rings throughout Alumni Gymnasium whenever the Otters take to the boards. Under the guidance of head coach Curt Tong, the Otters met with overwhelming success in competing against opponents both near and far as attested by their 16—7 record. The highlight of the season occured as the Otters literally trounced their cross-town rivals at Capital University. In tournament competition, the Otters advanced to the sectional finals only to be defeated by perservering Akron cagers.



There's no way to go but around.



If I don't make this basket I'll just die.



Otterbein's "Ace" Don Carlos lays in a "bunny".

John Peters picks a rebound out of mid-air.

How can anyone expect me to make a basket from this position?

Tom Martin lays in "two" as Mike Grayem gets bumped from behind.

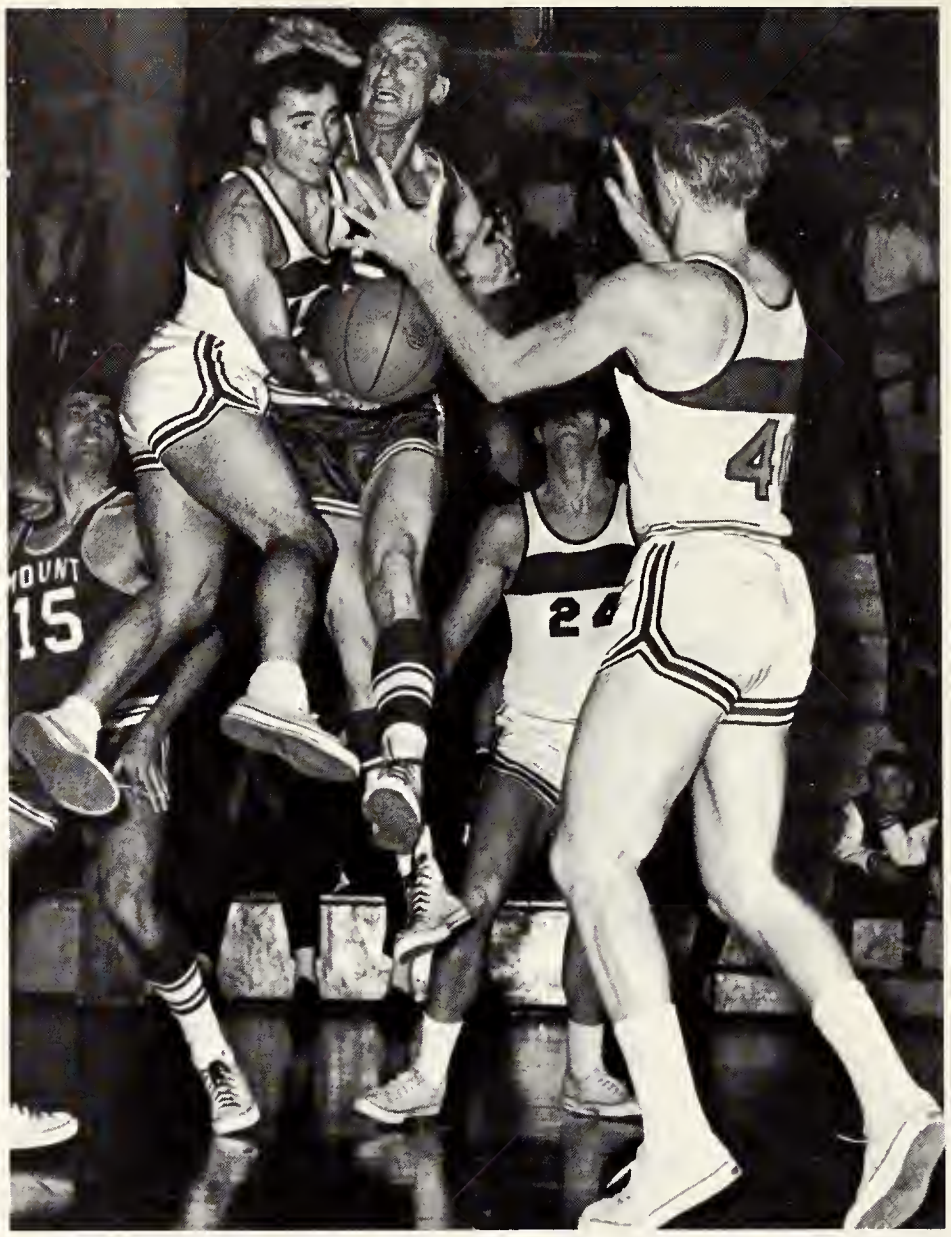
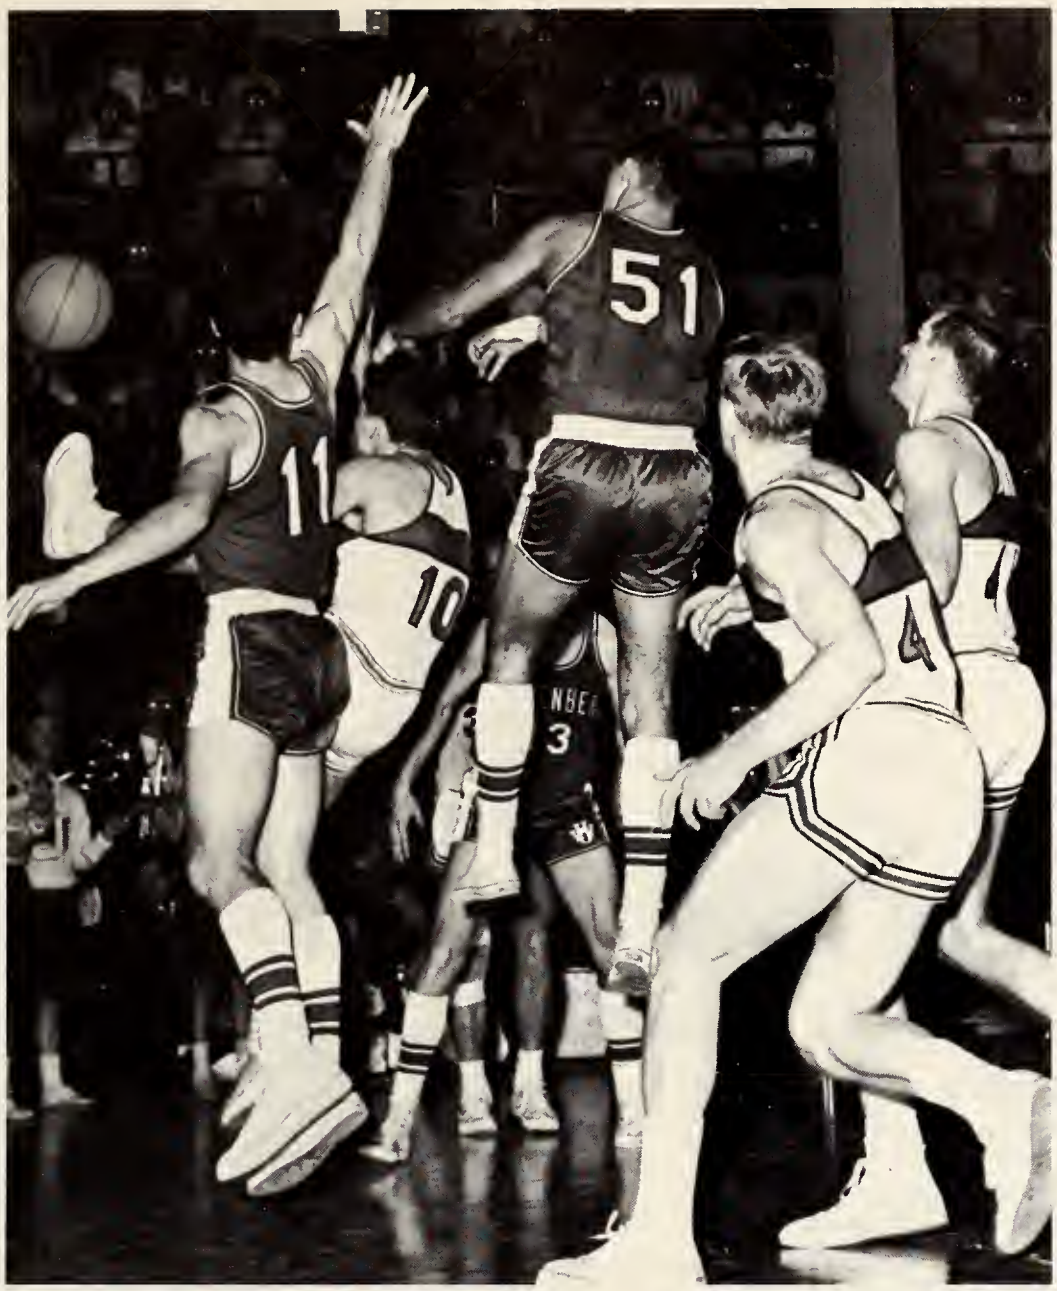
Mike Grayem makes shooting look easy.



Tim Pond gets "dunked" by an over-aggressive opponent.

Pat Patterson has to do things the hard way.

Tim Pond gets ready to shoot one shot.



Tim Pond adds "three" points to his total as he kicks the ball right into the balcony.

John Peters out jumps the opponent to score on a jumper.

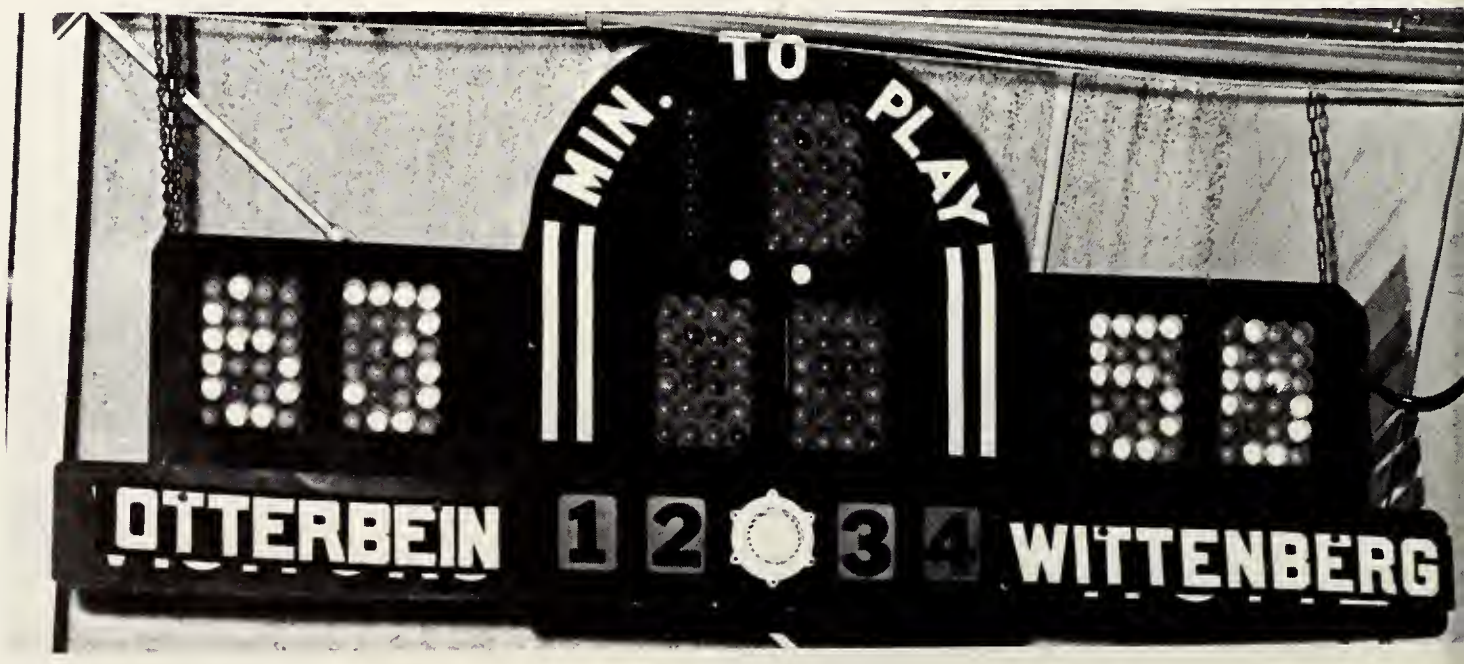
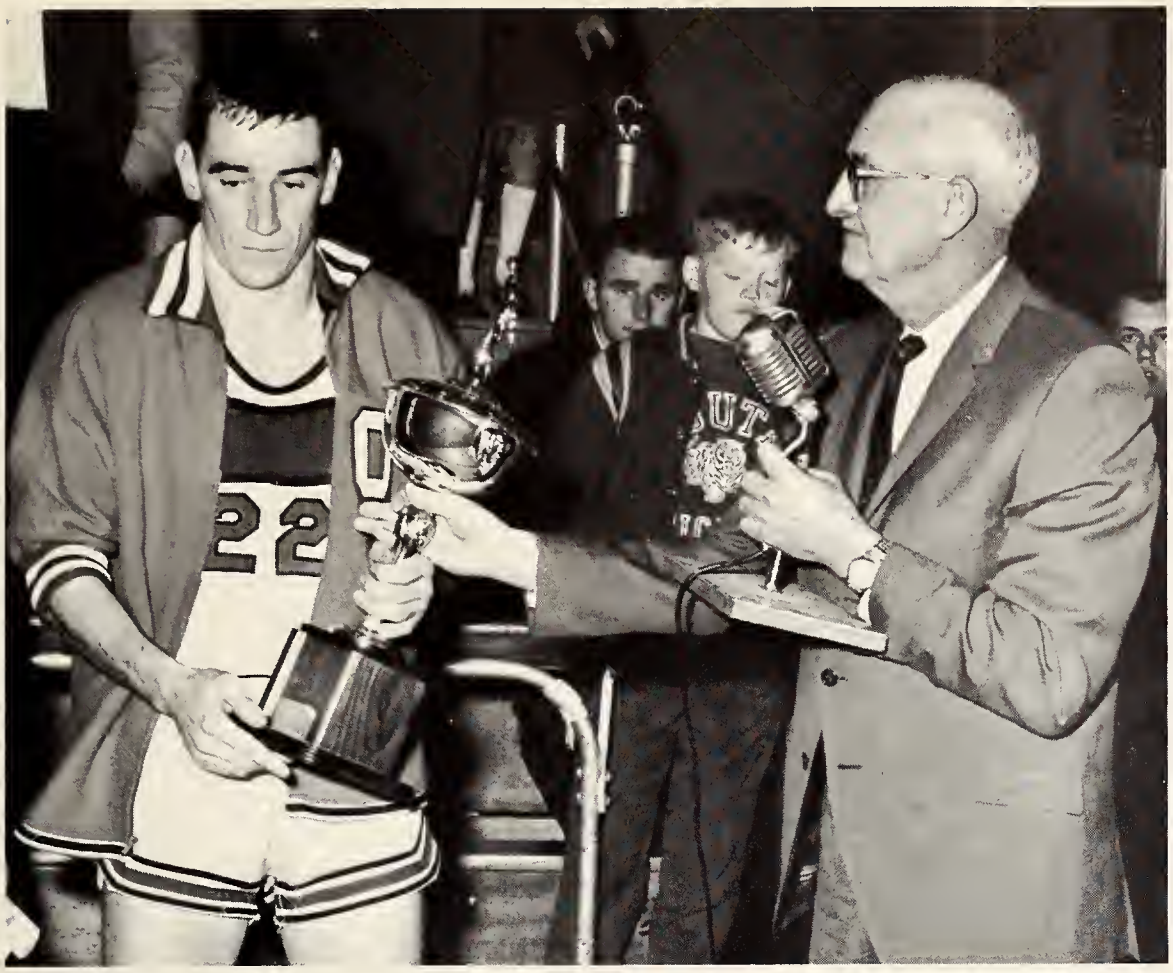
Mike Grayem and Don Carlos shake hands with a defeated Wittenberg "Tiger".



The scoreboard tells the story as Otterbein defeats Wittenberg 63 to 56.



Dick Reynolds graciously accepts the championship trophy as Coach Tong looks on.

During the Christmas holidays while everyone else was busy doing Christmas shopping, the Otters were busy winning tournaments. The Otters came out on top in both the Ohio Northern Invitational Tournament and the Indianapolis Classic.

The team gathers around the "spoils".

Wake up Coach Tong! We want to present you with an "Oscar" for being the "character-of-the-year".

"Ferocious" Frank Jayne gets ready to pin? his opponent.

A somewhat unknown sport scholastically a few years ago, WRESTLING has come on to the point that it is one of Otterbein's leading winter sports. The team, although they lost more matches than they won, thrilled the crowds with their vast knowledge of this scientific sport.

Gary Holtzman rests atop his opponent as he strategically plans his next move.

CROSS COUNTRY at Otterbein is a sport that, although relatively unknown, serves as a foundation for a successful TRACK program. Track is perhaps the best sport at Otterbein. Interest is high, competition is keen, and the sport itself is both rewarding and relaxing—all these ingredients combine to make a successful track team which, under the direction of Coach Yoest, Otterbein has had for the past few years.

Tom Main grimaces as he clears the bar at six feet.

If only I can reach the pit.

Jack Moore and Sam Murphy take a commanding lead over their "plumbing" opponents.

A warm day, a fast track, a well conditioned team, and a good coach—the necessities for victory. There are many factors that determine the outcome of a track meet—factors that work harmoniously together to bring victory to Otterbein.

"On your marks!" "Get set!" "Go!"

Tim Moody gets ready to explode out of the blocks.

Here!! Take it!! I don't want it!!

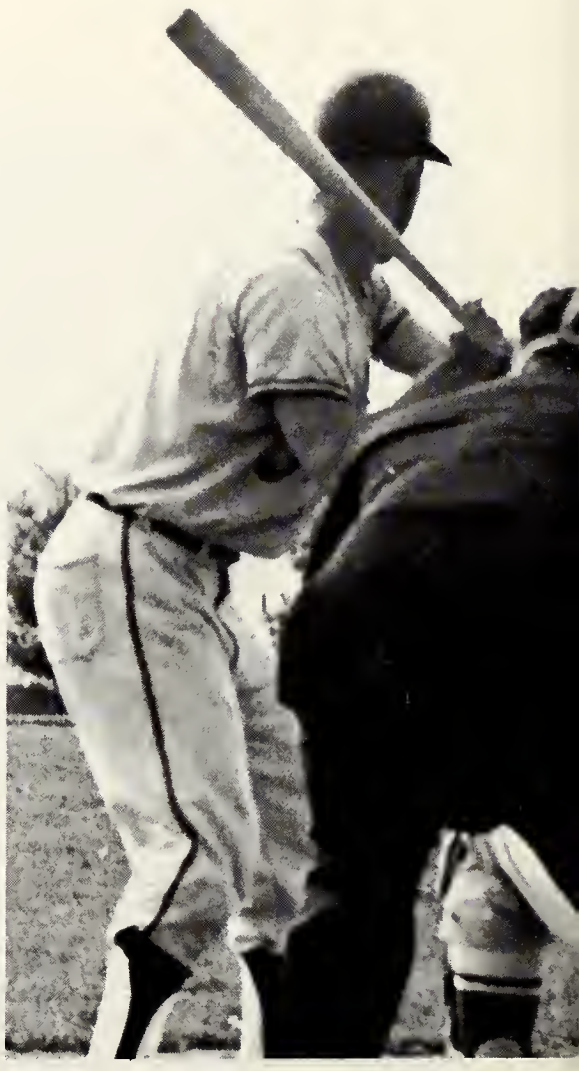
Jack Moore takes the hurdle in stride and ahead of his opponent on his way to a new record.

Dick Reynolds does a balancing act atop his glass pole.

Wolfgang Schmitt breaks the tape to win another race.

Tim "Babe Ruth" Kinnison takes a hearty swing at the little round spheroid.

Steve Moeller says "Hold it" as Eddie Harris slides safely into third.



Ron Kirby uncorks another strike.

Eddie Harris takes a mighty swing without a bat.

Although they did not win many games, the Otterbein BASEBALL team delighted the fans with their dazzling display of baseball at its finest. Under the tutelage of Coach Terry Parsons, the team took a southern tour and ended up near the .500 mark for the season.

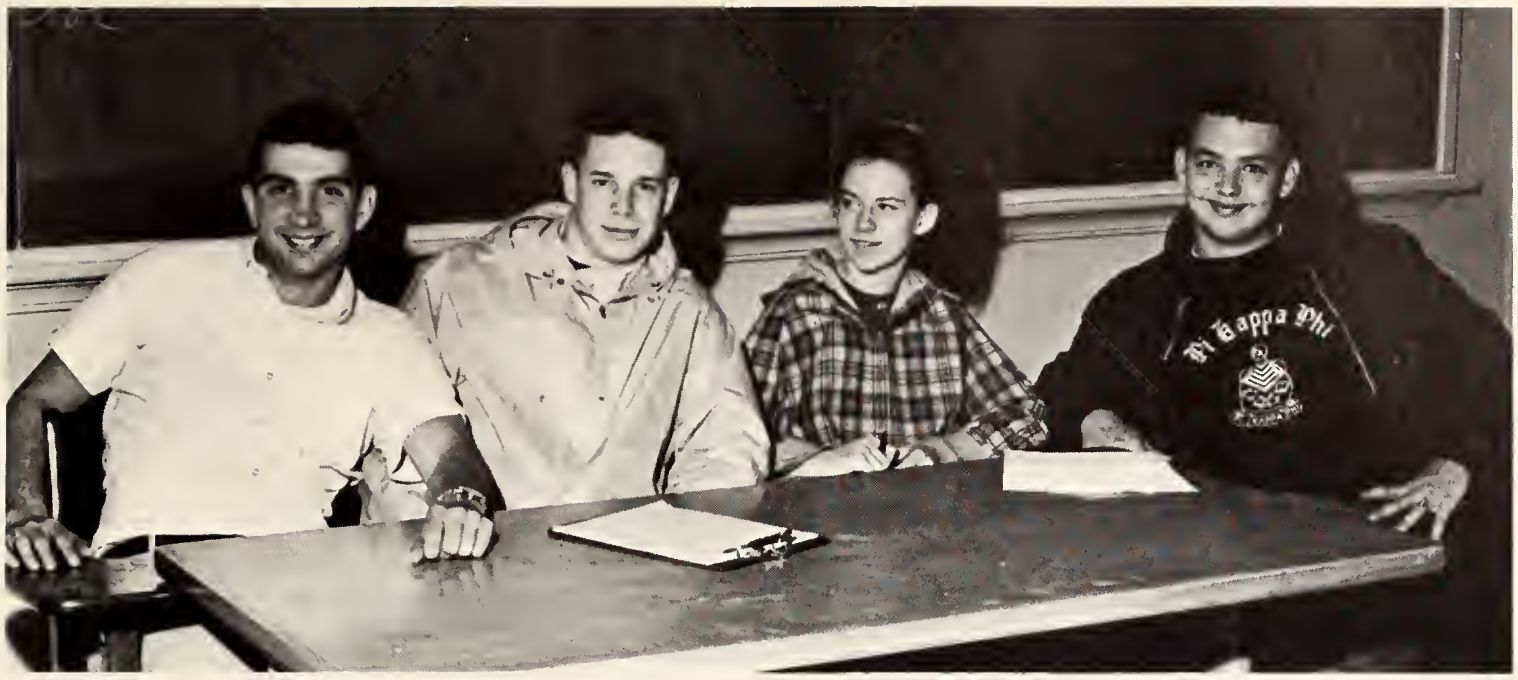
Joe Rice shows excellent form as he mows down the opposition with his blazing fastball.

GOLF: KNEELING: Mike Griffith, Mark Woodruff, Rick Pinson. STANDING: Pat King, Coach Robert "Moe" Agler, Glen Calihan.

GOLF at Otterbein College affords its participants to endulge in skillful competition on the links. Under the coaching of Athletic Director Robert "Moe" Agler, the linksmen parred their way to victory on several occasions.

TENNIS, a sport that is on the rise at Otterbein, is attracting more participants each year. The highlight of this years season was the double win over Capital. Under the brilliant coaching of Curt Tong, the netmen finished above .500 for the season.

TENNIS: KNEELING: Jim Bruce, Craig Seese, Don Robertson, Bill Bennett, Craig Brandt. STANDING: Coach Tong, Bob Ostrander, Curt Fellers, Tom Mignerey, Ron Anslinger, Pat North.



SAILING CLUB: George Parthemos, Dave Gates, Liz Fenn, and Tom Pascoe

The SAILING CLUB has as its purpose teaching new members and providing fun for the old sailors. Since the club was just organized in 1963 the club's participation in intercollegiate regattas has been limited. However they are expecting to compete in the future.

The MODERN DANCE CLUB, under the advisory of Dean Van Sant, is for girls who are interested in creative movement by using the body as the instrument and movement as the medium. The girls in this club participate in such programs as Convocation, the Festival of Arts Series, and May Day.

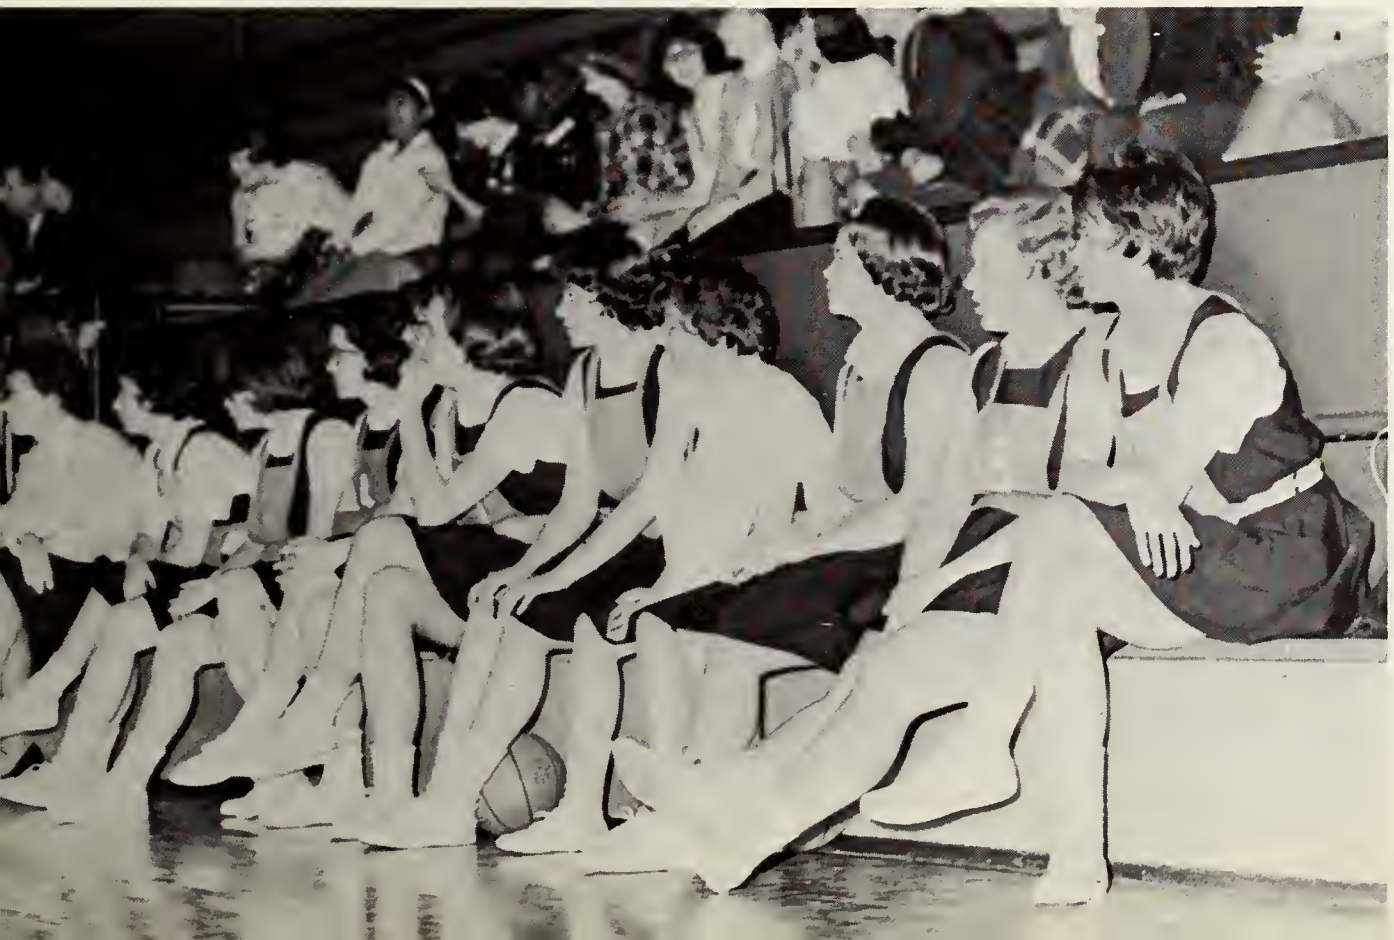
WAA Christmas Breakfast meeting.

Lectures on graduate school, leisure time, and the education of the blind, a field and track clinic—These were a few of the activities of PI EPSILON, Otterbein's club for women physical education majors and minors. Through well-planned meeting and meaningful experiences in clinics the club worked together to learn more about their future profession. Pedaling, dribbling and back-handing were some of the pleasures of the WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION. Both intramural and intercollegiate competition sparked interest and effort in the athletic endeavors of WAA members.

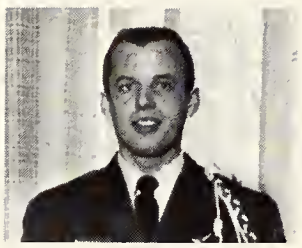
Intercollegiate Hockey Team: Bark Wissinger, Lydia Steinmetz, Judy Morrison, Phyllis Noll, Jane Martin, Anne Barnes, Diana Bosley, Marsha Lauderbach, Sharon Milligan, Marie Platano. KNEELING: Joy Kiger, Mary Jo Allen, Joyce Stemple, Joanne Miller, Anna Van Tassel.

Whether Hockey in the Fall, basketball in the Winter or softball in the Spring, Otterbein women worked hard at their favorite sports. Various individual athletics such as archery and tennis played an important part of the warm weather season. The intramural program sponsored volleyball, badminton, pingpong, basketball and hockey teams. Winter took some indoors for bowling and some outdoors for ice skating. Participation in the sports program led to membership in WAA—here qualities of spirit and cooperation were developed, tried, and exhibited.



Seniors

Mary Ellen Hull, Senior Class Secretary.



Perry Doran, Senior Class President

The class of 1965 was graduated. Its members permeated a new world, a different world. They were educated at Otterbein College. Some were wealthy, some poor; some from Africa and some from Canton, Ohio; some were Greeks and some independents. They all lived and studied four years in Westerville. They reflected the times—they were more studious, more serious and more professional than the previous graduates. They became alumni, active alumni. Visiting the campus, the walks will seem cold, the town small, the students young, so young. Times have changed and will change. Only the brick stands and in time even this will errode.

Dr. Hancock and Professor Botts affix a hood on Ray White.

Graduating seniors are busy readying themselves for the "big moment".

The baccalaureate processional is caught in full stride.

Who turned out the lights?

A bird's eye view of the seniors as they enter Cowan Hall.

The trials and tribulations of a college life are summed up in graduation—the end of one phase of life and the beginning of another—with memories of the old and speculations of the new.

The AFROTC commissions its new "2nd Lieutenants".

A lonely graduate ponders the future.

Art Deeks has help with his wings.

The "Grand March" gets underway.

All eyes and ears are on the commencement speaker as he challenges the graduates in the future.

President Turner flips the tassle of Judy Buckle.

Linda Gillespie beams all over with joy after having received her diploma.

Roger Blair receives his diploma from Dean Miller.

What's behind the graduating class of 1965?

The Otterbein blimp takes an aerial photo of the graduation proceedings.

DAVID WEBSTER

WILLIAM WEBSTER

MARTIN IRMLER

IN MEMORIAM

We pause to honor three members of our Otterbein family who lost their lives in an automobile accident one brisk fall night. The men, David Webster, his brother William Webster, and Martin Irmler were well-known and equally well-liked at Otterbein, and, it is to these fellow students that we, the Sibyl staff, dedicate our book.

*Putting together a yearbook is not a one man operation. It is an operation that involves many people, many sacrifices, tedious work, and a lot of time. This year, there was one person who worked harder, made more sacrifices, and spent more time, but did not receive near enough credit. It was a pleasure having LANA RINEHART on my staff—without her, the book would not be a reality.
